THE POVERTY LINE

For one in six children in America, it's an impossible hurdle. It's a line that separates children who receive an education from those who do not. It's a line that separates children who receive a nutritious meal from those who do not. It's a line that separates children who receive a safe home from those who do not. It's a line that separates children who receive a chance at a better future from those who do not. There are many ways you can help. Visit www.400hours.org for more information.
