Jamison Bethea is again using his birthday celebration to give back. At his 11th birthday celebration on Saturday, July 20 at the Hanes Hosiery Community Center, 501 Reynolds Blvd., he is asking guests to give the gift of canned food donations for the local food bank. Jamison, who started the community-giving organization "Grannies' Love," collected more than 500 canned-goods at his last birthday event. The public is invited and encouraged to help Jamison meet his goal by dropping off canned goods from 9 a.m. - 3 p.m.

Andrew W. Waddell has been promoted to the rank of staff sergeant in the U.S. Air Force.

Waddell is a medical laboratory technician assigned to the 59th Medical Wing at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas. The new staff sergeant has served in the military for four years.

He is the son of Wade and Charlotte Waddell of Kernersville and a 2004 East Forsyth High School graduate.

Air Force Airman Tara A. Moore graduated from basic military training at Joint Base San Antonio-Lackland, San Antonio, Texas.

The airman completed an intensive, eight-week program that included training in military discipline and studies, Air Force core values, physical fitness and basic warfare principles and skills.

Moore

Airmen who complete basic training earn four credits toward an associate in applied science degree through the Community College of the Air Force. Moore earned distinction as an honor graduate.

She is the daughter of Lisa Marshall and John Jones and a 2011 graduate of East Forsyth High School.

Army National Guard Pfc. Daryl L. Green Jr. has graduated from the Chaplain Assistant Advanced Individual Training course at the Chaplain School, Fort Jackson, Columbia, S.C.

The course emphasized religious support, development of interpersonal skills, and unit ministry support to soldiers and family members. The support training provided services in a battlefield environment and battle fatigue casualty care.

Religious support classes instructed students to prepare altars for Protestant, Catholic, Jewish and Orthodox worship services, and stressed the importance of being knowledgeable of all faith groups represented in the Army.

Green is the son of Alishea Relaford and Daryl Green Sr. He is a 2012 graduate of Parkland High School.
