

Scholarships given by Pan-Hellenic Council

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

The Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Chapter of the National Pan-Hellenic Council recently awarded $500 scholarships to Tatyana Green and Brandon Feaster, well-deserving seniors who have achieved academic success while serving their communities.

Tatyana is a student at Early College of Forsyth, where she is an active member of Crosby Scholars, the yearbook staff, the Publishing Club and the Movie Making Club; she is also a recruiter assistant for her school.

Tatyana is active as a volunteer in several organizations, including AIDS Care Services, the Ronald McDonald House, Second Harvest Food Bank and the Lend a Helping Hand Fundraiser.

Brandon is a student at Reagan High School, where he is active in Crosby Scholars, Athletes for Change and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. In addition, he has held leadership roles on the soccer and basketball teams. Brandon has also demonstrated a willingness to help others by serving as a volunteer with

Members of the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Chapter of the National Pan-Hellenic Council stand behind 2014 scholarship recipients and their parents: (seated from left) Jackie Feaster, Brandon Feaster, Tatyana Green and Bobby Patterson (Green's father).

Stop Hunger Now, the Second Harvest Food Bank, the Boys and Girls Club and Habitat for Humanity.

Both scholarship recipients have been inducted into the National Honor Society and plan to attend UNC-Chapel Hill in the fall.

The Winston-Salem/Forsyth County chapter of the National Pan-Hellenic Council is a collaborative organization comprised of representatives from nine fraternities and sororities – Alpha Phi Alpha, Alpha Kappa Alpha, Kappa Alpha Psi, Omega Psi Phi, Delta Sigma Theta, Phi Beta Sigma, Zeta Phi Beta, Sigma Gamma Rho and Iota Phi Theta. Iman

Moore is the president of the council. The members of the Scholarship Selection Committee are Carol Mitchell (chair), Deborah Barr-Cloud, Emory Jones, Stanley Mitchell and Sonjia Samuels.

Garden Club holds Celebration Lunch

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

The Garden Club Council, a non-profit organization consisting of 23 local garden clubs in the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County area, held its first ever Celebration Lunch on Friday, May 9 at Old Town Club. More than 120 garden club members attended.

Nancy Spencer, a long-time member of the Flower Lore Garden Club, received the Wava Howard Award for Lifetime Achievement. The award is given in honor of Mrs. E. R. (Wava) Howard to a living member of the Garden Club Council who has done the most over a period of years to further its projects and objectives. Howard, who celebrated her 100th birthday this year, was present to see the award given to Spencer.

Anne Butler, a Council Advisory Board member and member of the Evergreen Garden Club; Sherry Hester, Council Treasurer and member of the Forest Garden Club; and Trish Summers, president of Lewisville Garden Club; each won 2014 Outstanding Volunteer Awards.

Allison Watts, and member of the Lawndale Garden Club of Winston-Salem, won the Nancy D. Sherk award for Achievement in Beautification. The award was presented by Helen Holtzworth, a member of the Full Sun

Part Shade Garden Club and the daughter of the late Nancy D. Sherk.

The Garden Club Council was organized in 1932 to help "protect, preserve and beautify our environment." Today, the Garden Club Council includes more than 800 members from 23 garden clubs – Audubon, Club of 20 Gardens, Dogwood, Evergreen, Flower Lore, Flowers & Friends, Forest, Forest Evening, Full Sun, Part Shade, Garden Study, Hope Valley, Lawndale, Lewisville, Little Greens, Old Salem, Shamrock, Sheffield Gardeners, Spade & Trowel, Town & Country, Twin City, Weeds & Seeds, West End and Westwood.

The Garden Club Council is headquartered at 100 Reynolda Village and operates the Garden Boutique at Reynolda Village. Lynn Jennette is the 2013-2015 president of the Garden Club Council.

Rivers releases book

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

Martha Rivers has released her new book, "Who Flipped the Script."

It tells the story of a beautiful, single, ambitious woman and her search for love.

Rivers

Rivers – a mother of four and a grandmother of eight, is a teacher, evangelist child advocate, and the former owner of Royal Child Care, where her children were loved, taught, nurtured and guided by the motto, "We play to learn, and we learn to play and live together."

Rivers ministered under the leadership of Rev. Melvin Wilkins Sr. for many years. Upon retirement, she decided to be faithful in keeping her journal, combining sermons she had preached, along with interesting experiences she had witnessed over the years.

Her book is available on amazon.com. The paperback version is $17.46; the Kindle edition is $3.99.

THE ELLISON
LAW FIRM

Eric S. Ellison
Attorney At Law

Is Your License Revoked or even Permanently Revoked?
I May Be Able to Get You a Driving Privilege.

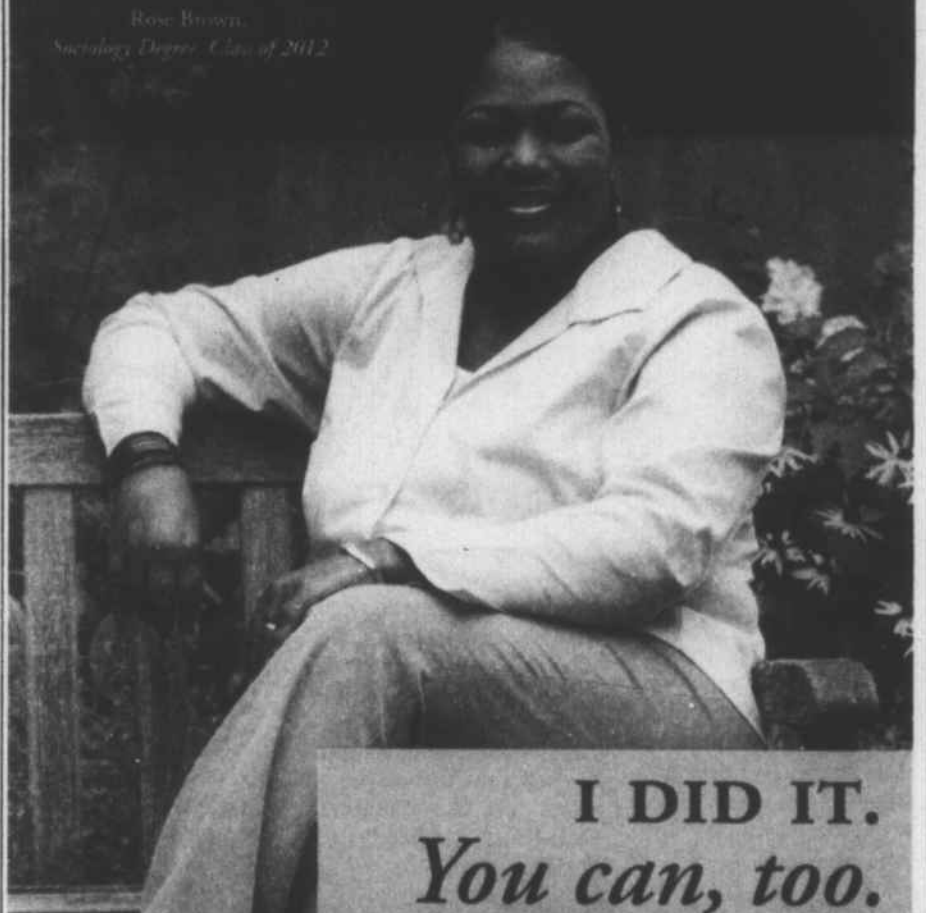

Is the Bail Bondsman Too Expensive? Maybe You Need to try a Property Bond.

Call Me!

112 North Marshall Street
Winston-Salem, NC 27101
(Just North of 1st Street)
Phone: (336) 723-7370
Fax: (336) 723-7372
ellisonlaw@earthlink.net

"Dedicated To Providing You The Best Service."

Rose Brown
Secretary Degree Class of 2012

I DID IT.
You can, too.

SALEM COLLEGE: OFFERING 37 DEGREES FOR ADULT STUDENTS

BOOKMARKS PRESENTS

Pat Neely

Author of Back Home With the Neelys: Comfort Food from Our Southern Kitchen to Yours and star of The Food Network's Down Home with the Neelys.

•• Join Us! ••

Conversation with Shannon Smith of Fox 8 News
Booksigning & Reception featuring Neely Dessert Recipes!
Wednesday, June 4
7:00 p.m.
The Arts Council Theatre
Tickets: $15 or $35 with book

Tickets available at bookmarksnc.org or by calling 1-800-838-3006

Bookmarks

bookmarksnc.org

Thank you to our sponsors:

When I thought about going back to school and getting a degree, I made every excuse in the book for not doing it. No time. No money. No way. I was wrong.

The Fler Center for Adult Education at Salem College helped me overcome every barrier with ease. Today, I have a degree and a new job at Winston-Salem Preparatory Academy.

Attend an Info Session
May 28 at 5:30 pm and we will waive your application fee.
We'll even request and pay
for your transcripts.
Call 336-721-2669
to reserve your seat today.

Fler Center
FOR ADULT EDUCATION
SALEM.EDU/FLERCENTER
(336) 721-2669