Hunter

Maryland, and Holy Trinity, Edesville, Maryland, in April 1984 and was then assigned to the Historic St. James A.M.E. Church, Havre de Grace, Maryland, in June 2004.

His ministry encompassed church building and restoration, mortgage redemption, increased membership, community and political involvement and financial empowerment. More importantly, through discipleship, innovative ministries and strategies, many accepted Christ as their Savior.

At the 195th Session of the Baltimore Annual Conference, Pastor Hunter was elevated to presiding elder and assigned to the Eastern District of the historical Baltimore Conference.

He received a Bachelor of Science degree in elementary education, Master of Science Education Administration and Supervision degree from Morgan State University, and Graduate Program Religious Education from St. Mary's Seminary and Ecumenical Institute. Additional post graduate work has been done at Loyola College, Coppin State University and Goucher Institute. He completed requirements for the Doctoral Degree in Christian Education. He is a proud Life Member of Morgan State University Alumni Association.

After 33 years of service, Rev. Hunter retired as an Administrator of Anne Arundel County Public Schools. He is married to Joan Walker-Hunter and has two sons, Cordell Jr. and Kenneth. His focus remains "I Tried to Serve."

After the service, refreshments will be served in the Steven L. Lyons Fellowship Hall.

St. James is under the pastorate of the Rev. Steven L. Lyons. The public is invited.
