

URBAN LEAGUE

The Picture of SUCCESS: Urban League Senior Program Works

URBAN LEAGUE

Mary Eldridge, a 74 year old SCSEP participant had been unemployed three years before entering the Urban League Senior Community Services Employment Program. She was placed at the YMCA and was elated when offered the position of a Youth Counselor in the after school program that operates at the LaDeara Crest development.

Charles Waters, a 64 year old disabled senior was assigned to the W-S Housing Authority as Custodian through the Urban League Senior Community Service Employment Program for paid work experience. He was assisted in developing a resume and coached in interview techniques. Mr. Waters successfully obtained the position as custodian with Senior Services.

Brenda Barnes came to the Urban League office in Burke County to enhance her office skills and reenter the workforce. She had extensive office experience, but needed assistance to find a job. She was placed at the Senior Center for paid work experience. Based on her performance she was subsequently hired as Administrative Assistant.

For Information about the Urban League Senior Employment Program contact Patricia Sadler @ 336 725-5614

Riding the bus just got easier!

The Winston-Salem Transit Authority is taking the guesswork out of riding the bus with NextBus

Track the location of WSTA buses in real time on your smart phone, tablet or computer

Set up alerts by e-mail that give you time to get to the stop before the bus arrives

Get NextBus at wstransit.com.

NextBus. A better way to ride the bus!

Wherever Life Takes You!

LIFELONG LEARNING AT WAKE FOREST UNIVERSITY

A collaboration between WFU and the Arts Council of Winston-Salem & Forsyth County

Short six-week personal enrichment courses in history, literature, art, religion, music, and current events

Daytime courses with convenient parking, taught at the Milton Rhodes Center for the Arts

Starting in March:

The Civil Rights & Black Power Movements: The Half Century Mark

Coming this Summer:

Children's Literature, Russia & Ukraine, Hands-on Tech Workshop, American Revolution, Baroque Music

For more information:

(336) 758-5232

lifelonglearning@wfu.edu

Visit our website:

lifelongwake.wfu.edu

