Third DivorceCare seminar offered

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

After months of planning, preparation and training, the Stephen Ministry at United Metropolitan Missionary Baptist Church (UMMBC) is offering its third, 13-week DivorceCare seminar next week.

A broad range of topics were covered during the seminar, including how to face anger, loneliness and depression, developing new relationships, financial survival and single sexuality, reconciliation and forgiveness, moving on and growing closer with God.

The UMMBC Stephen Ministry DivorceCare program provides help and healing for those hurt from separation and divorce. The next seminar starts on Monday, Aug. 3, and ends on Monday, Nov. 2 (find complete meeting schedule www.divorcecare.org/groups/43363.)

Here is a testimonial

"Thank you, Stephen Ministry. Thank you DivorceCare! When the worst happened, when my vows were trampled and 'Tiill Death do Us Part' turned into 'I'm Out of Here!', you were there for me and for my children. Thank you! For much of the past 5+ years, I've felt trapped in a life between a horror movie and a Tyler Perry screenplay. Just when I thought I couldn't take it and wouldn't make it any longer, DivorceCare was introduced to me. (Further evidence of an On Time God.)

Father Basile Sede comes to St. Benedict the Moor as its new officiating priest

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

The congregation of St. Benedict the Moor Catholic Church, 1625 E. 12th St., welcomes Father Basile Sede as its new officiating priest.

Father Sede comes to St. Benedict from St. Vincent de Paul Church in Charlotte. He is from the Diocese of Buea, located in the Southwest region of Cameroon, in central Africa. Father Sede was ordained in April of 1998, and has been a Priest for 17 years.

According to Father Sede, African culture and its intrinsic values are very similar to the Christian principles of loving and serving one's neighbor. And, as the African continent becomes increasingly Christianized, he said,

"This ties with us, too, because we believe that life should be about helping one another."

To welcome Father Sede to the community, St. Benedict will host His Excellency the Right Rev. Immanuel Banlanjo Bushu of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Buea and Chancellor of the Catholic University of Buea. He was ordained a priest in 1973 and appointed Bishop of Yagoua, Cameroon in 1992. He became Bishop of Buea in 2007.

Bishop Bushu will be the principal speaker at a public forum, which will be held in the church fellowship hall of St. Benedict from 9 a.m. to noon, on Aug. 8. The Bishop will share with us information about the entrepreneurial model

Nehemiah Worship Center celebrates its first year

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

...The God of heaven, he will prosper us; therefore we his servants will arise and build: (Nehemiah 2:20)

Nehemiah Worship Center of Winston Salem reports that Pastor Paul P. and Lady Virginia Thombs and members held the first-year celebration for their church recently. The celebration was held from at the Union Chapel Baptist Church fellowship hall at 300 W. 25th Street in Winston Salem.

The first worship service was held on April 13, 2014 at 4873 Phelps Road, Winston Salem, with a philosophy that "If we build people's lives, people will build the temple. Our church serves men, women, children, the hungry, the imprisoned, the naked, and the sick. We've been blessed in our commission that 33 souls have been added to our ministry."

And all the people gathered themselves together as one man into the street that was before the water gate;... (Nehemiah 8:1) aging word as friends and family witnessed what God has done in just one year, the church reports.

"It is by the grace of God we have established church by-laws, developed a church organizational structure, created a church logo, purchased office equipment and have been blessed with our first pulpit designed specifically for NWC," the church reports.

"We were also blessed to deliver coats, shoes, and clothes to local charities in the Winston-Salem area," the church reports. "Our Food Ministry continues to give bread away. We gleaned 6,230 pounds of food and we distributed an additional 11,500 pounds to those in need throughout the community. Our Men's Ministry gave away 17,000 bottles of water in the community. The Redeemer Cometh

Lesson Scripture: Isaiah 59:15-21

By the end of this lesson, we should:

- Recognize how sin drives us away from God
- Understand that no human can get us in right relationship with God
- Appreciate that God alone redeems humanity

Background: Isaiah meaning "Yehweh saves" was a contemporary of Amos, Hosea, and Micah. This major prophet (length of book) began his ministry in the year that King Uzziah died in 740 BC. He was called "the prince of prophets" due to his extensive writing. "The New Testament alluded to his writings more than 250 times and quoted him directly 50 times" (Richards' Complete Bible Handbook). The book has 66 chapters divided into two sections - Judgment chapters 1-39 and Restoration chapters 40-66. Like his contemporaries, Isaiah's message was given during a stormy period in the history of God's People, Israel in the north and Judah in the south. In both kingdoms, the leadership (kings, judges, priests and false prophets) rebelled against God and exploited the people. As their hearts turned further from God (their rebellion), corruption and injustices became commonplace. God's prophets warned the people about the impending judgment of God; however their arrogance led them to ignore His mouthpieces. Assyria crushed Israel in 722 BC and scattered most of the Jews who lived there.
