wanting everyone to know,' turned into a yearning to have others intercede for me. From the videos that showed all too familiar real-life scenarios letting us know that we weren't the only ones experiencing such an excruciating existence, to scripture and verse we internalized for strength, and, in group sessions where we vented and shared, cried and eventually laughed without fear of judgment or ridicule, DivorceCare was there for me. Uplifting, Healing, Encouraging, and a Motivational source of Hope. That's what DivorceCare has been for me. Everyone was awesome! Thank you to everyone from registration to Session Leaders and the closing prayer.

"You've all played a very valuable part in my recovery and the rebuilding of my family. You are priceless to me. Thank You!"

Separated or divorced people who would like to join the 13-week program should complete the online registration form. Someone will be in contact with you, the church says. For child care, respond to the question on the registration form at beyondthesanctuary.wordpress.com.

of education being implemented at the University Institute of the Diocese of Buea and other humanitarian projects in which he has been involved, to make life better for the people of Cameroon.

"We are pleased to share this opportunity with the residents, local government officials and our educational community," the church said in a statement. "We believe this is a valuable opportunity for our community to hear first-hand about projects in Africa and to be enlightened about how we can contribute to their society. There is much need for help with projects to empower and strengthen the Cameroon culture."

Lunch will be provided for a suggested donation of $10. All are invited. Organizations are invited to present the Bishop with a souvenir that will remind him of his visit to Winston-Salem.

For further information and to RSVP, call St. Benedict the Moor Catholic Church at 336-725-9200.

Judah saw what happened but continued down the path of rebellion, corruption and injustices. Isaiah told them that their punishment would be at the hands of the Babylonians. They were also told about the utter destruction of the Temple, their homes and the land. BUT even in the midst of their sins, God would extend His mercy!

Lesson: After reminding them of their transgressions in verses 1-14, the prophet brings a word of hope. The Lord God is not pleased at all with their actions but He looks around to find an intercessor for them. Throughout their history from Abraham to Solomon not one could be found. So the merciful God will put on His breastplate of righteousness and helmet of salvation to defeat evil that threatens His people's lives and their livelihoods. Isaiah confirms for them that God will repay their enemies for all wrong deeds. His judgment will be quick and forceful like water coming from a broken dam. The survivors will be those who repented. The prophet declares that God will put His Spirit into the hearts of humans for His everlasting covenant with His people!

Life's Application: We are guilty as charged! Whether we are leaders or not God has a standard that we have failed to meet. What do we want? Mercy is our cry even though we fail to give it to others. Some model we are for His love! We are in filthy rags; yet God extends His mercy to us. Not only that, He redeems us back to Him. Our mediator or intercessor cannot come from the ranks of humanity. We simply are not worthy or capable to complete this task. God knows, so He wraps Himself in flesh and dons His armor to do battle with evil on our behalf! What an awesome God we serve! Judgment is what we deserve and we do get it; but God also gives humanity His grace and mercy. God is truly awesome!!!

blessed this year to establish Sunday & Wednesday Bible teaching where we continue to survey the Bible for necessary understanding for an effective ministry.

"Understanding the need to reach all people, we established our Women's Ministry, our Children's Ministry, and a Worship Leaders' Ministry.

These ministries along with the Prison Ministry help to ensure we reach all of God's people where they are, so they can be taught salvation and understand how much Jesus loves us.

Then he said unto them, Go your way, eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send portions unto them for whom nothing is prepared: for this day is holy unto our Lord; neither be ye sorry; for the joy of the Lord is our strength.

(Nehemiah 8:10)

"We were blessed to celebrate Our First Year with friends and family who have supported us throughout this journey," the church reports. "They supported us as we hosted our Revival on the Lawn and our Friday Night Live services. They supported us in our Christmas Play & Dinner. They supported us when we had fellowship dinners both at church and when we had our adult Christmas Fellowship at Cities Restaurant.

"And as we continue our journey, we steadfastly recognize 'How Great is Our God' and He has put us on the wall to rebuild broken lives and we will refuse to come down."
