

In Memory of Dr. Maya Angelou
April 4, 1928 – May 28, 2014

"We are more alike,
my friends,
than we are unlike."

A handwritten signature in black ink, consisting of the letters 'MA' followed by a horizontal line that extends to the right.

Since 2002, Wake Forest Baptist Medical Center has been honored to carry the name of Dr. Maya Angelou at the Maya Angelou Center for Health Equity, created to advance the cause of health equity. Dr. Angelou was a wonderful champion for many issues in our society, and she understood well the relationship between social justice and optimal health for all people. Her voice will continue to have an influence around the world for many generations.
