

JV FOOTBALL

Titans-Spartans showdown: Who has the edge?

BY CRAIG T. GREENLEE
FOR THE CHRONICLE

Tonight's (Oct. 15) West Forsyth-Mount Tabor match-up figures to be the game of the JV football season. The Titans are undefeated and have a shot at running the table to achieve perfection by season's end.

The Spartans are one of two teams left on the schedule (the other is North Davidson) who have a reasonable chance to end West Forsyth's win streak. Kickoff is set for 6 o'clock on Mount Tabor's home turf.

A look at the numbers seems to favor the Titans, who average 38.2 points per game. What makes West Forsyth's offense so formidable is its ability to score points in a hurry in a variety of ways. The ground game is stellar with Kenyar McPhatter and Mack Duke getting most of the totes. Quarterback Drew Latham gets ample help from break-away receivers Jamon Brown and

Photo by Craig T. Greenlee
Reed Harper (55) and his offensive line mates pave the way for the Titans to score 38.2 points per game.

See Edge on B2

Third quarter keys Mount Tabor's win over Reynolds

Photo by Craig T. Greenlee
Raymond Wilson of Reynolds (62 in black) tackles Rodrigue Godwin of Mount Tabor.

BY CRAIG T. GREENLEE
FOR THE CHRONICLE

The Mount Tabor-Reynolds JV football game was nip-and-tuck in the first half.

But by the end of the third quarter, the Spartans seized total control and cruised to 30-6 road win last Thursday (Oct. 8). For three-and-a-half quarters, the defense kept the Demons under wraps. Offensively, Mount Tabor (4-2, 2-1 Central Piedmont 4-A Conference) generated enough of a spark to win by a comfortable margin.

"This team always plays hard, but doesn't always play smart," said Coach Tieshaun Brown of Mount Tabor. "Defensively we are solid. But we've got to find ways to get more from our offense. If we can get that going, we'll really have something.

"I give a lot of props to Reynolds. They've got a good defense and their passing game is legit."

With the win, Mount Tabor is back on track and looks to continue its win streak when it plays host to undefeated West Forsyth tonight at 6. There's no denying the excitement in Brown's voice when he talks about the upcoming match-up.

"This (tonight's) game is the reason why you coach," said Brown. "I'm really looking forward to seeing how well we can play."

For the Spartans and Demons, the third quarter proved to be pivotal. Mount Tabor, who led 8-0 at the end of the first half, scored a couple of quick touchdowns to

See Win on B2

Sports analyst Jalen Rose hosts first Champion Day fashion show

Former NBA player visits HanesBrands headquarters

BY TEVIN STINSON
THE CHRONICLE

On Friday, Oct. 9, retired professional basketball player-turned-sports-analyst Jalen Rose made a stop at the HanesBrands headquarters in Winston-Salem to host the Champion Brand

Fashion Show.

Rose spent 13 years in the NBA, but is most known as the point guard of the "Fab Five" at the University of Michigan, the first team in NCAA history to start five freshman. During his visit, Rose said he started working with Champion because the brand is well known and has been making quality products for years.

Since 1919 Champion, Athleticwear has offered a full line of innovative athlet-

Photos by Tevin Stinson
Jalen Rose, sports analyst for ABC/ESPN, hosts the Champion Day fashion show at the HanesBrands headquarters in Winston-Salem on Friday, Oct. 9.

See Fashion on B2

WE SEE
RED

BECOME A HORN$ CLUB MEMBER
TODAY ► 336-750-3180