will serve the Lord." (Joshua 24:15). The Lord commands it.

God amplifies the Sabbath command when He instructs the people during the time of tabernacle constructions. God now emphasizes the connection as "a sign between me and you throughout your generations." (Exodus 31:13). Added also are punishments for breaking the Law.

Life's Application: Today we use the Sabbath day as our day for celebrating the Lord's Supper, for hearing the preached word and for taking up offerings for both benevolence and the upkeep of God's House. These are all significant things we are instructed as Christians to do. Most Christians now observe the first day of the week as "The Lord's day." (Rev 1:10). Our Sabbath day observation serves as a reminder of God's sovereignty as our creator.
