

OES youth giving back

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

Members of Mary L. Fair Gleaner Branch #137 are learning the lessons of giving back. Under the leadership of Madison Murrell, the young ladies collected items to prepare a food box for a family in need in Winston-Salem for Thanksgiving.

"These young ladies wanted to make a difference in the lives of those less fortunate," the chapter said in a statement.

The members of Mary L. Fair "are committed to upholding their youth motto 'Good Behavior Is Always In Style,'" the chapter said.

Mary L. Fair Gleaner Branch #137 is the youth group of Sisters of Bivouac Chapter #530 Order of the Eastern Star, PHA. Eva L. McWillis serves as the lead supervisor for the group.

OES chapter celebrates milestone

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

Sisters of Bivouac Chapter #530 Order of the Eastern Star Prince Hall Affiliated celebrated its 70th chapter anniversary at The Hawthorne Inn and Conference Center. The theme was "70 Years of Light in the Community."

The Rev. Dr. Larry E. Covington, pastor of Ebenezer United Church of Christ in Burlington, was the guest speaker. "He moved the audience with his quick wit and humor, while sharing an inspiring word from God. Rev. Covington encouraged everyone to be of service whenever possible and let their light shine in the community," the chapter said in a statement.

After the speaker, the essence of the celebration was highlighted by Lisa W. Smith, Worthy Matron of the chapter, who paid tribute to all of the honorees who served as Past Matrons and Past Patrons of Sisters of Bivouac Chapter and presented plaques to all who were present.

The honorees at the October event were Diane Acker, Josephine Jones, Chlories Shore, Jean Nunn St. Preux, Mary Michaux, Eva McWillis, Gloria

Sisters of Bivouac Chapter #530 Order of the Eastern Star was originally organized on Oct. 9, 1945. The chapter has served the Winston-Salem/Forsyth Community for the last 70 years in a number of ways.

Under the leadership of Worthy Matron Smith and Worthy Patron Peay, the chapter "continues to be a light in the community by collaborating with other service agencies in the community like Second Harvest Food Bank. The American Heart Association and the Salvation Army, just to name a few," the chapter said.

The chapter's theme continues to be "Stars Shining Light Throughout the Community."
