

RiverRun offers films of interest to seniors

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

Founded in 1998, the RiverRun International Film Festival has grown substantially since its inception. It is now one of the premier film festivals in the southeastern United States. The 2016 festival dates will be April 7-17. There are over 160 films screened at venues such as the UNC School of the Arts three theatres on campus, Aperture Theatre downtown on Fourth Street, Hanes Brands Theatre, SECCA and Bailey Park. Riverrun presents high-profile, critically-acclaimed films and is dedicated to the role of cinema as a "conduit of powerful ideas and diverse viewpoints." Its vision is to "Unite communities through film."

Films range from dramas to comedies, documentaries to shorts, to Saturday Morning cartoons and more. They are also bringing back some old films, such as "Breakfast at Tiffany's" and "Rebel Without a Cause."

Kristi Marion, RiverRun's communications director, has selected several films that would be of interest to seniors.

Harold and Lillian: A Hollywood Love Story
