

THE CHRONICLE

SPECIAL PUBLICATION!

April 2016

Photo by Charles Leftwich

Hundreds gathered at the Donald Julian Reaves Center on the campus of Winston-Salem State University for The Chronicle's 31st Community Service Awards event on April 23.

Making the city a better place

The Chronicle honors
community servants

BY TEVIN STINSON
THE CHRONICLE

Like the Dixie Classic fair, or the annual Christmas parade held downtown The Chronicle's annual Community Service Awards has become one of the city's most anticipated events.

Since 1985, Winston-Salem's oldest and most-respected community newspaper has invited elected officials, business professionals, community leaders, residents and other stakeholders in the community to take part in the award ceremony designed to honor individuals throughout the area for their hard work and dedication to improving lives.

Last Saturday evening, April 23, hundreds of people gathered at the Donald Julian Reaves Center on the campus of Winston-Salem State University for the 31st edition of

See Honors on PAGE 6