Donate a backpack for a child in need and join the YMCA for $0

Now through August 15, new members can join the Y for a $0 joining fee when they donate a new backpack. Branches of the YMCA of Northwest North Carolina are collecting backpacks and school supplies to help students start the school year ready to learn. All supplies will be distributed through local nonprofit partners, schools, or the Y's Bright Beginnings program. The Y's Backpack Campaign has grown over the years, most recently collecting nearly 2,000 new backpacks in the seven counties with YMCA of Northwest North Carolina branches. Stop by your local Y to drop off a new, unused backpack. For potential members interested in joining the Y, the joining fee is $0 with a backpack donation through Aug. 15. Donated backpacks must be new and never used. Visit ymcanwnc.org or call 336-777-8055 to find a branch near you. The YMCA of Northwest North Carolina offers financial assistance and never turns anyone away due to the inability to pay.
