Summer league at Carl Russell crowns champions

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

The Summer League championships at Carl Russell Sr. Recreation Center were called very exciting. The Lakers won the 11 to 19 age group.

Big shots were made by Michael Jordan at the end of the game. The game was won by two points at the buzzer. The Most Valuable Player was Everett Boston, who was the leading scorer for the game.

Naim Rahmaan led the Cavs in the 6 to 11 age group championship game. Coach Brian Leak said all the players played hard and had a great attitude. Leak said that in his league, everyone must play and have fun and be respectful to one another no matter what happens.

SPECIAL TO THE CHRONICLE

During a three-day Josh Howard Basketball camp at Hanes Hosiery Recreation Center, 117 children were thrilled as they went through basketball drills and workshops. They also played basketball with former NBA star Josh Howard, who is from Winston-Salem.

Howard, an NBA All-Star, Wake Forest All-American and ACC Player of the Year delighted the kids with his presence and hands-on training during the camp.

Howard, along with former high school and college stars, worked with the students on various aspects of the game and on life skills as well.

Hanes Hosiery Director Coach Art Blevins has nothing but praise for Josh and his staff. "Josh is a great fellow. I think the world of him. I truly appreciate all he does for us each summer by giving back to the community and our kids like he does each summer."
