

SPORTS WEEK

Also More Stories, Religion and Classifieds

AUGUST 25, 2016

Youth football league holds jamboree at Carver High

BY TIMOTHY RAMSEY
THE CHRONICLE

Youth football leagues are the purist form of the sport in the eyes of many. The young people who make up these leagues play for the love of the game. The Central Carolina Youth Football League (CCYFL) held a jamboree Saturday, Aug. 20, at Carver High School.

The CCYFL includes teams from all across the state of North Carolina and the Youth Character Football League (YCFL), based out of Union Baptist Church, is one of them. The YCFL was created to help combat childhood obesity and to give the young people something to participate in. The league has been in existence for seven years. League Director Tom Brown seeks to make the league stronger

See Youth on B2

Photo by Timothy Ramsey

The quarterback from the Southwestern Randolph Cougars breaks several tackles during the scrimmage against the YCFL 8 and under team.

Glenn JV uses second-half surge to beat N. Forsyth

BY TIMOTHY RAMSEY
THE CHRONICLE

The first game of the year usually comes with some nervousness and a few mental errors as the players knock the rust off from the summer. Last Thursday, Glenn's JV was able to overcome the rust and pull out a victory against North Forsyth, 14 to 6.

Neither team was able to establish any sort of continuity on offense during the first half of play. North was unable to get out of its own way with botched center to quarterback exchanges, missed assignments on the offensive line and key turnovers. Glenn was able to drive the ball into North territory multiple times in the first half but kept coming up empty. Glenn's defense was the most consistent group on the field all night.

Glenn Head coach Stephen Herring Jr. said it felt great to "get the monkey off their back" by winning the first game of the year.

"Our defense played huge tonight. If it wasn't for the four turnovers and getting us good field position, who knows it; how things would have turned out. Its much easier to score on a 40-yard drive than an 80 yard."

was able the line image on which Forsyth for most game. On offense, Glenn went to wide receiver Christen Wilson early and often with hitches and quick screens that opened up the running game for Mekhi Fenner, who scored twice, and others.

"Christen Wilson is one of our big time players, and 14-6

Glenn to control of scrimmage, kept North off balance of the

we went to him early. By doing that, it opened up the passing game for other receivers like Davieyon Allbrook-Miller, who had a big night receiving for us as well as our tight ends," Herring continued.

North Forsyth did not seem to get into any sort of rhythm all night long. They had issues just snapping the ball from under center and when they seemed to have some momentum late in the first half, starting running back Semaj Transou had to leave the game due to injury. Following the injury to Transou, the Vikings were not able to move the ball on the ground.

The first half of play ended with a 0-0 score. Glenn came out early in the second half and seemed to wear down the Vikings, who had many players going both ways on offense and defense. The Bobcats were also able to

See Surge on B2

The Smoothie King

Franchisee Duvane Dorsey opens second smoothie shop in Winston-Salem

BY TODD LUCK
THE CHRONICLE

In less than a year, Duvane Dorsey has opened two Smoothie King locations in Winston-Salem.

He opened his first Smoothie King at 1961 N. Peace Haven Road on Oct. 29 of last year. His second store opened last Monday, Aug. 15, at 5709 University Parkway and is already receiving a steady stream of customers.

Dorsey said word of mouth about the new location has brought in customers and made it "wonderful from day one."

See Smoothie on B2

Duvane Dorsey opened his second Smoothie King location at University Parkway.