

Presented by:

KILPATRICK
TOWNSEND

ATTORNEYS AT LAW

1001 West Fourth Street • 336.607.7300

THE STUDENT OF THE MONTH DECEMBER

Easton Elementary
Mykol Torres

Mykol Torres is a dynamic kindergarten student that exhibits great character and a positive outlook on education. Everyday Mykol enters the classroom with a warm presence that influences others to succeed. His teacher, Mrs. Troxler, said Mykol has the leadership and character traits that are needed to excel in his academics and in life.

Spree Elementary
Adalia Lamkin

Adalia Lamkin has numerous interests that keep her busy including baking cakes, telling jokes, drawing and spending time with her family. She is also quite the athlete, Adalia sleeps, eats, and breathes gymnastics. In the classroom her favorite subjects are math, reading and science.

Old Town Elem.
Autumn Winford

Dependable, hardworking, trustworthy, kind, and gentle are just a few words that describe Autumn Winford. She is extremely well rounded, she serves as an announcer on Old Town TV, types scripts for tongue twisters and birthdays all while participating in the Academically and Intellectually Gifted Program.

Caleb's Creek Elem.
Miguel Moreno

Miguel Moreno is a model student. Every day he walks through the doors of Caleb's Creek Elementary School with a smile that can light up a room. Miguel strives to set an example for the other students. Not only does he participate in classroom discussions, he also often asks for extra math work to take home.

Northwest Middle
Olivia Rogers

Olivia Rogers is the definition of a well-rounded student. As a honor roll student and member of the Crosby Scholars she still finds time to play volleyball, basketball and throw the shot-put during track season. Olivia also participates in the art club and Crafting for a Cause at Northwest Middle School.

Mount Tabor High
Thelma Vembe

When Thelma Vembe first moved to the United States from her native country of Zimbabwe in 2013 she was initially skeptical about the move, but now she has embraced her new home and is thriving in school and in the community. While maintaining a 4.0 GPA, Thelma is extremely involved at her church (Calvary Baptist) where she is a member of the choir and the prison ministry.

Meadowlark Middle
Gwen Parks

Gwen Parks is a very goal oriented 8th grader at Meadowlark Middle School, the daughter of Graham and Jennifer Parks, Gwen is a straight "A" honor roll student who strives to keep her grades at 93 or above. Although she excels academically her passion is running. This year she finished second in the county cross-country meet. When she grows up Gwen wants to become a lawyer.

Kernersville Elem.
Alison
Garcia-Gonzalez

Alison is a very bright and kind 2nd grader at Kernersville Elementary School. Her favorite subjects in school are science and math. Alison also enjoys art and music. In her free time she likes to unwind by watching her favorite TV show, Alvin and the Chipmunks, and visiting the park. When she grows up Alison would like to be a teacher.

Glenn High
Jacquelyn
Marley Boyd

If your looking for a well rounded student look no further than Glenn senior Jacquelyn Marley Boyd. Jacquelyn is a member of the school's concert choir, lacrosse team and the French club. In the classroom Jacquelyn is in the top 5 percent of her graduating class, she also received the National Academy of Future Physicians Award earlier this year.

Bolton Elementary
Diamond Jones

Diamond Jones is a versatile and talented 5th grader at Bolton Elementary School who excels academically, and goes beyond what is asked of her inside and outside the classroom. She is also a member of the recycling team, and kindness and compassion club where she shows tremendous responsibility and respect for the school environment. When she grows up she would like to become a dance teacher.

Jefferson Middle
Taw Meh

An outstanding 8th grader at Jefferson Middle School, Taw Meh is a honor roll student and member of the National Junior Honor Society and Crosby Scholars. Taw Meh is also a talented musician as well. Her talents with the violin recently earned her a seat in the All-County Orchestra. Born in a refugee camp in Thailand, Taw Meh moved with her family to the United States in 2009.

Cook School
Briannah Rickard

An honor roll student at Cook Literacy Model School, Briannah Rickard serves as a role model for her fellow classmates and younger siblings as she demonstrates honesty, integrity and a love for learning. According to her teachers, each day Briannah arrives to school ready to work, she also leads her reading group and enjoys utilizing her math skills as she facilitates the operation of the school store.

Reagan High
Tirrezz Hudson

A senior at Reagan High School Tirrezz Hudson is in the top 10 percent of his graduating class, and a member of Crosby Scholars. Although his education comes first, Tirrezz still finds time to succeed outside the classroom as well. He is a member of the Bella Voice Chorus, and has performed with the All-County and All-State chorus. Outside of school he is an active volunteer in the community and member of Morning Star Baptist Church.

Ashley Academy
Jayla Page-Thomas

Each day she walks through the doors of Ashley Academy, Jayla demonstrates exemplary behavior and leadership skills. She also has a big heart; earlier this year Jayla hosted a "Snowman Drive", in which she encouraged students to donate hats, scarves and gloves for the residents at the Bethesda Center. At home sometimes her technical curiosity gets her in trouble, she loves to take things apart such as the toaster, video game consoles and hairdryers.

Kimmel Farm Elem.
Julian Alerta

Although he is only in the 4th grade, Julian Alerta has already been dubbed a math wizard by his teachers and peers. Outside of school Julian enjoys traveling, playing soccer and art. His favorite food is spaghetti which he eats on extra special occasions. Julian's family is originally from the Philippines and his grandparents still live there.