DELIGHTFUL BIRTHDAY PARTY AT HOME OF MR. AND MRS. STAUBER

Rural Hall, June 25.—An occasion that will linger long in the minds of the Rural Hall folks was the birthday party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Stauber. The invitation read as follows:

"1907—Birthday Party—1913 in honor of Gilbert Stauber's Birthday at home of his parents, Saturday afternoon, June twenty-first, 4 to 7. You are invited."

Masters Elbert Stauber and Belmont Hetschuck, leaving the hall, they came assisted at the front gate in receiving by little Misses Mollie Ogburn and Mamie Vest, Masters Paul Feltz and Leslie Stauber, Misses Ava Wolff and Margaret Flynt stood at the front steps to welcome the guests. They passed through the hall, where the decorations consisted of sword ferns, beautiful sweet peas and nasturtiums, the sweet peas being a gift from Mrs. J. A. P. Wolff, and the nasturtiums from Mrs. E. A. Hulseback. Leaving the hall, they came to the summer dining room. Here daisies were used in profusion. A ball of twine in which was concealed a violet leaf and decorated on the outside with daisies was suspended from the ceiling. Dais, Arthur Feltz and Miss Eunice Flynt presided here. They served lemonade and each little guest's name was taken and each one entitled to one guess at what was in the ball of twine. After which a number of games were played. This came an important feature of the party. The children, forty-five in number, were seated on the grass in the front yard, and Mr. and Mrs. Stauber were assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Feltz and Miss Eunice Flynt in serving a full supper. Before eating the little ones stood while Master Leslie Stauber returned thanks. Soon the jolly little crowd were ready for more fun, and unwinding the ball of twine to reveal the secret was engaged in. The children then took hold of the twine and continued going around the house until the violet leaf was exposed. Master Paul Feltz and little Miss Clara Jones proved to be the lucky ones in the guessing contest, thereby winning the prize, a box of chocolate candy. Still another treat was in store for the already happy little ones. A large hand wagon was stopped near the front gate and soon the "little folks" were loaded and enjoyed a ride. They afterwards re-assembled at the Stauber home, where a picture was taken. A guest worthy of special mention was Mrs. Martha A. Shore, a great aunt of the young Stauber for whom they celebrated. Master Elbert, who was the recipient of many gifts, was given an honorable place in the picture. He stood beside the great aunt. The picture has been finished and will be presented as a souvenir of the happy event.

INTERESTING TALK AT BROWN MEMORIAL CHURCH

Rev. Chas. H. Durham, pastor of the First Baptist church of Lumberton, spoke last night to a large and attentive audience at Brown Memorial church on the subject of "The Attractiveness of Jesus," taking for his text Christ's own words, "And I, if I be lifted up, will draw all men unto myself."

Rev. Mr. Durham presented the subject clearly and forcibly, showing in what ways Jesus is attractive to men, in what ways he makes a personal appeal to them. Among some of the ways in which Jesus appeals to men are the following: by being the standard of character, by giving victory over pain and sorrow, by teaching the kindness of the Father, and by showing the home of the soul.

Rev. Mr. Durham is one of the strong Baptist preachers of the State and the Brown Memorial congregation were fortunate in having him with them in last night's service. He is at present pastor of the First Baptist church of Lumberton and is also president of the Baptist State Convention, having been re-elected at the last convention. Mr. Durham is said to be the best presiding officer the Convention has had within the recollection of many who attend the annual meeting.
