Mr. Bryant's Lecture on Satan.

The citizens of Salisbury will have the opportunity, to-night, at McNeely's Hall, of hearing Mr. S. S. Bryant's very novel and suggestive Lecture, on "Satan, his origin and appearance." If the reports from other places are any indication it must prove very intesesting. The reputation of Mr. Bryant as a speaker is too well known throughout the State to need any special comment.

It might, from the title, strike some as either improper or devoid of interest, but we are assured that no correct idea can be formed of the Lecture except by hearing it, the views being entirely novel. It has been pronounced by the press, "a work of the highest order of genius."

Ladies' Entertainment.

Don't forget the Ladies' Entertainment, on to-morrow (Wednesday) night, at the Town Hall.

The Salisbury Brass Band will be in attendance, and choice selection of music, both vocal and instrumental will be rendered. Besides this, refreshments—eatable and drinkable—substantials as well as delicacies will be served, by fair hands, to those who may desire them.

The decoration of the Hall will be a most attractive feature of the entertainment. The price of admission to the Hall is only 25 cents. At so small cost all can embrace this rare opportunity of enjoying a delightful evening, and we hope none will fail to attend.

The funeral services of the late Hon. W. W. Seaton, in Washington, were of the most imposing character. The various municipal offices were closed, and the officers of the corporation, the Knights Templar and Grand Lodge of Masons, the Typographical Society, Bookbinders Association, &c., were in the cortege. Hon. W. H. Seward, Judge Wayne and the Baron Gerolt were among the pall-bearers.—Among other distinguished gentlemen present were the Postmaster General, the French, Prussian, Russian, Chilian, Peruvian and Danish Ministers, Gens. Banks, Meigs ank Ekin, and Hon. L. F. S. Foster.—Sentinel.

SEC. 2. Be it further ordained, That where specific taxes have been imposed for license to use any article or carry on any business for the year preceding the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, one half thereof shall only be payable in those cases, where taxes were actually paid under said ordinance for the same license.

SEC. 3. Be it further ordained, That retailers of spirituous liquors, who paid the tax prescribed in section eleven of said ordinance, shall be entitled to retail for the year for which their license was granted, without further tax to the State for such retailing.

SEC. 4. Be it further ordained, That the provisions of section thirty two of Schedule B, of said act of Assembly, shall only extend to the license for distilling spirituous liquors from grain.

SEC. 5. Be it further ordained, That in all cases where taxes are payable to the Sheriff or Collector, without the subject from which they are derived being listed, such Sheriff or Collector, for the purpose of ascertaining the amount of such taxes, shall have power, and it shall be, his duty to administer an oath to the person liable to pay the same.

SEC. 6. Be it further ordained, That this ordinance shall be in force from its ratification.

State of North Carolina,

RALEIGH, ... 186

Chairman of the County Court of .....

DEAR SIR:—I enclose you copy of Ordinance just passed by the Convention.

You will notice the following points.

1st. The County Court may for the present year, levy taxes on all persons and subjects of taxation mentioned in Schedule A, Schedule B, and Schedule C, of the Revenue Act, except Corporation Charters, Banks, and Attorney's licenses, the taxes on which are not payable into the Treasury by the Sheriff.

2d. The levies made by the County Courts heretofore, have been made valid, but the Courts may meet again if they choose, and may make such changes as they desire.

3d. The County Courts are not obliged to tax everything, they may make discriminations and exemptions, such as will be just to tax payers.

4th. Special terms if deemed advisable, should be called by the Chairman, giving ten days notice as prescribed in Section 107 of the Act for Collecting Revenue, of the General Assembly.

5th. Seven Justices may impose the taxes for support of the Insane for 1865.

7th. The Sheriffs are bound to use the same means, for collecting County taxes, that they are to collect State taxes; they should not therefore grant licenses, except on payment of County tax.

Very respectfully,
KEMP P. BATTLE,
Public Treasurer.

The London Times, commenting on the present "disastrous course of prices" in England, says that "consols are already at the lowest quotation touched during the most costly and disastrous stage of the Crimean conflict, while all other classes of securities are very far below the range of that time."

The New York Times closes an article on the political situation, saying that as matters now stand "there is but one alternative—either such a modification of existing parties as shall meet the new emergencies of the hour, or a sweeping triumph of the democratic party in 1868."

It may well be a cause of congratulation to every American, that in only one year after the close of a disastrous and terribly costly war, the Committee of Ways and Means in our Congress should feel at liberty to recommend the cutting down of one-fifth of our national taxes, considering that reduction fully justified by the state of the Treasury. It is a solid and unanswerable argument in favor of our national strength and resorces.

The ordinary method of crushing large masses of cast iron into fragments are both cumbersome and expensive, but the new French method consists in drilling a hole in the mass of cast iron for about one-third of its thickness, filling this with water, closing it with a steel plug which fits accurately, and letting the ram of a pile-driver fall on the plug. The very first blow splits up the mass.

JAMES EAGAN, ESQ— It affords us great pleasure in giving early publication to the annexed, in reference to James Eagan, Esq; a citizen of Lexington District, one of its most highly respected citizens, we are indebted to the Charleston Courier for the grrtifying intelligence.

"By direction of His Excellency the President of the United States, Jas. Eagan, has been released from arrest and restored to his friends. It will be remembered that Mr. Eagan was convicted by a Military Commission of shooting a negro in Lexington District last summer, and was sentenced to imprisonment for life in the Albany (New York) Penitentiary. From that institution he was discharged by a decision of Judge Nelson of the Supreme Court of the United States, obtained in a suit for a writ of Habeas Corpus, which was grpnted. Returning home a few days since, he was rearrested by the military authorities of this State, and confined in the jail of this city until his present release, which is final and absolute.—American Patriot.

☞ Five car loads of rations arrived by the Montgomery and westPoint railroad a few days ago for the destitute of Alabama. They were a part of the proceeds of the fair originated and so successfully carried through by the noble ladies of Baltimore. Their generous conduct will never be forgotten by the people of this and other unfortunate Southern States.—Montgomery Ad.

☞ Sold by all Druggists and Dr. J MAGGIEL, 43 Fulton Street, New York, at $2 00 per box, and to whom all orders should be addressed.

☞ Caution.—I have noticed with much pain that many Druggists, both at home and abroad, are offering my Billious and Diarrhœa Pills to patients for the cure of Chills and Fever, and Ague. My Billious and Diarrhœa Pills are infallible for what they claim to be, but nothing more. Do not then be imposed upon. My Chills and Fever remedies have their name on the boxes, and are entirely different from any of my other medicines. I have been at considerable expense to have a label engraved difficult to counterfeit, and it is hoped that the consumer will narrowly scrutinize what he purchases, purporting to be mine.

PATENT MEDICINES.

A BOON TO THE SICK AND The Light of the World.

Pills and Salve.

These Life-giving remedies are now, given publicly to the world. For over a quarter of a century of private practice the ingredients in these

LIFE-GIVING PILLS,

Have been used with the greatest success. Their missioners not only to prevent disease, but to cure.—They search out the various maladies by which the patient is suffering, and revigorates the failing system. To the aged and infirm a few doses of these valuable pills will prove to be

A VERY FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH.

For in every case they add new life and vitality, and restore the warning energies to their pristine state. To the young and middle-aged, they will prove most invaluable, as a ready, specific, and sterling medicine. Here is a dream realized, that Ponce-de-Leon sought for three hundred years ago, and never found. He looked for a fountain that would restore the old to the vigor and make youth ever

AN ETERNAL SPRING!

It was left for this day and hour to realize the dream and show in one glorious fact, the magic that made it air.

THESE FAMOUS REMEDIES

Cannot stay the flight of years, but they can force back and hold aloof, diseases that might triumph over the aged and young. Let none hesitate then but seize the favorable opportunity that offers. When taken as prescribed—

FOR BILLIOUS DISORDERS

Nothing can be more productive of cure than these Pills. Their almost magic influence is felt at once, and the usual concomitants of this most distressing disease are removed. These remedies are made from the purest

VEGETABLE COMPOUNDS.

They will not harm the most delicate female, and can be given with good effect in described doses to the youngest babe.

FOR CUTANEOUS DISORDERS

and all eruptions of the skin, the salve is most invaluable. It does not heal externally alone, but penetrates with the most searching effects to the very root of the evil!
