

The Old North State

SALISBURY, N. C., NOV. 5, 1868.

Terms for Publishing Legal Advertisements.

The Editors of the Watchman and North State and AMERICAN, to save themselves from loss, and to induce cash payments for publishing legal advertisements, have adopted the following scale for publishing the same, hereafter, and invite the attention of Clerks of the Courts, and other interested parties to the terms proposed.

For publishing usual Legal Notices or Court orders, when the cases or complaints are ordered, the price will be $7. When the same are sent and published, without prepayment, the charge will be $10.

Clerks of Courts who themselves, advance the money, will have the benefit of the difference.

Important To

Magistrates, Clerks, Sheriffs, and others.

THE undersigned have in press, and will soon issue, a complete and full

ANALYSIS OF THE LAWS, under the Code of Civil Procedure, as passed by the General Assembly, relating to the duties of Judges of the Peace, Sheriffs, Clerks of Court, and other County Officers.

together with the Constitution of the State, a list of the Counties as divided into Judicial Districts, the time of holding Courts in the several Counties, the names of the Judges and Solicitors of each County, the names of the Clerk of the Superior Court, Register of Deeds, Sheriff, County Commissioners, Treasurer and Coroner for each County. This pamphlet will also contain the Fees allowed by the new law to the several officers, with some of the most necessary

Forms of Civil and Criminal Process.

The work will contain about 150 pages, and will be a most valuable book of reference for county officers.

Sent by mail to any post office in the State, postage paid, for $1 per copy. Address, NICHOLS & GORMAN, Book and Job Printers, RALEIGH, N. C.

The undersigned are also preparing, under the direction of a member of the Raleigh Bar, a Digest of all the Laws concerning County Officers, with a Complete Set of Forms, adapted to the new order of things. This book, of some 400 pages, will be published as soon as the final report of the Commissioners appointed to revise the Code has been reported by the General Assembly. The plan and scope of the proposed book, will be further laid before the public at an early day. NICHOLS & GORMAN, Raleigh, Sept. 1, 1868. Publishers.

"A good paper--take it."--Warrenton Courier.

"An ably conducted, racy and live newspaper."--Salem Press.

"A spiky, spirited Conservative sheet. We commend the paper to the public."--Greensboro Times.

"One of the sprightliest Dailies in the State."--Washington Conservative.

"A sprightly Daily, and well worth the subscription price."--Greensboro Patriot.

"If you want a lively, wide-awake paper, subscribe to the Wilmington Star."--Concord Press.

"A sprightly and able Conservative paper. One of the raciest and most readable of our exchanges."--Raleigh Sentinel.

"One of the very best newspapers that visits our sanctum."--Martin (S. C.) Star.

"A lively, pungent Daily. The editor is evidently an energetic and skillful caterer."--Warrenton Indicator.

"If you want a bright, sparkling, lively and cheap daily paper, we can commend the Morning Star."--Florence (S. C.) Gazette.

"A well conducted, independent Conservative paper and well deserving of public patronage. It is one of the spiciest and most readable papers in the State."--Salisbury Old North State.

"A sparkling, lively and clever sheet."--Marion (S. C.) Crescent.

"A first-class Daily, and one of the spiciest papers received by us."--Goldboro News.

"Without mistake, one of the best Dailies received at this office, and may be truly designated a 'live newspaper,' containing the news, both political and commercial, in a 'nutshell.'"--Lancaster (S. C.) Ledger.

"A capital little Daily, and one of our very best State exchanges."--Raleigh Register.

"A sparkling little Twinkler, worthy of all commendation. Its lightning flashes of wit, satire and logic are constantly scorching the tattered rags of Radicalism."--Goldboro Rough Notes.

"Unquestionably one of the liveliest Dailies in the State, and a worthy recipient of the large and increasing patronage it is daily receiving. As a bright particular Star in the firmament of the South, we recommend its editor, and wish for him and his little Twinkler unbounded and unflinching success."--Raleigh North Carolinian.

"This bright constellation of the heavens continues to illumine the political horizon, and nobly performs its office of guiding Star for the poor, down-trodden Southerner. The superior ability of its editorial staff is a sufficient guarantee of its success as one of the leading papers of the country."--Benedictville (S. C.) Journal.

"The liveliest paper we know of, full of news and convenient form, and has an editorial staff who not only understand the art of organizing and paragraphing to perfection, but who also wield sensible and piquant pen. If you want to invest $2 in a daily, smart and profitable manner, send and get the Star for six months."--Kanee (S. C.) Courier.

"One of the best, and indeed we may add, the sprightliest news papers in the State. The Star shines conspicuously in the political constellation of North Carolina, and we take pleasure in recommending it to all who are interested in news, politics, or astuteness."--Raleigh Transcript.

THE CAROLINA FARMER.

BEHAVING that the interests of the Farmers and Planters of this section demand the publication of a periodical to be devoted to the advancement of Agriculture in the two Carolinas, we have determined to establish such a periodical under the title of THE CAROLINA FARMER, and will issue the first number as soon as a sufficient number of subscribers are obtained to pay a reasonable share of the expense of publication.

The Farmer will be issued monthly at $2 per annum, in advance; will contain not less than thirty-two large double-column pages of reading matter, bound in handsome covers; and in typographical execution will not be surpassed by any Agricultural Monthly in the country.

Being determined to do whatever energy will accomplish in making the Farmer worthy the support of the intelligent Planters and Farmers of North Carolina and South Carolina; and desiring to introduce it into every county in those States, we wish to employ active Agents at every Post office, to whom the most liberal inducements will be offered.

Agents Wanted For

THE OFFICIAL HISTORY OF THE WAR,

Its Causes, Character, Conduct and Results.

By HON. ALEXANDER H. STEPHENS.

A Book for all Sections, and Parties.

This great work presents the only complete and impartial analysis of the Causes of the War yet published, and gives those interior lights and shadows of the great conflict only known to those high officers who watched the flood-tide of revolution from its fountain springs, and which were so accessible to Mr. Stephens from his position as second officer of the Confederacy.

To a public that has been surfeited with APPARENTLY SIMILAR PRODUCTIONS, we promise a change of fare agreeable and salutary, and an intellectual treat of the highest order. The Great American War has AT LAST found a historian worthy of its importance, and at whose hands it will receive that moderate, candid and impartial treatment which truth and justice so urgently demand.

The intense desire every where manifested to obtain this work, its Official character and ready sale, combined with an increased commission, make it the best subscription book ever published.

One Agent in Easton, Pa. reports 72 subscribers in three days.

One in Memphis, Tenn. 106 subscribers in five days.

GRAY JACKETS.

And how they Lived, Fought and Died for Dixie.

WITH incidents and Sketches of Life in the Confederacy, comprising Narratives of Personal Adventure, Army Life, Naval Adventure, Home Life, Partisan Daring, Life in the Camp, Field and Hospital, together with the Songs, Ballads, Anecdotes and Humorous Incidents of the War for Southern Independence.

There is a certain portion of the war that will never get into the regular histories, nor be embodied in romance or poetry, which is a very real part of it, and will, if preserved convey to succeeding generations a better idea of the spirit of the conflict than many dry reports or careful narrative of events, and this part may be called the gossip, the fun, the pathos of the war, the humor of the soldiers, the devotion of women, the bravery of men, the pluck of our heroes, the romance and hardships of the service.

The Valiant and Brave Hearted, the Pictorial and Dramatic, the Witty and Marvelous the Tender and Pathetic, and the whole, arranged in a masterly manner, at once historical and romantic, rendering it the most ample, unique, brilliant and readable book that the war has called forth.

An assessment as well as instruction may be found in every page, as graphic detail, brilliant wit, and authentic history, are skillfully interwoven in the work of history.

Send for Circulars and see our terms, and a full description of the work. Address JONES BROTHERS & CO. Richmond, Va.
