The chaplain, in his elaborate appeal, failed to mention the accuract.

The Managers were defeated in both their attempts: First, to compel an answer today; account to have the trul to proceed inmendiately after their replication, regardless of the preparation for the defence.

The Court gave the accused an authority or money to sand for witnesses. It was not demanded by the defence.

The debate developed the fact, that after the President unker his nasswer on the 23d., the Managers will have to submit their replication to the House, before presenting it.

The Managers actimate that this toutine will occupy three days, after which, if the Senate continues in its present temper, the President will have a liberal time for his preparation.
