

THE OLD, OLD STORY.

Just your head upon my shoulder!
Fshaw! The world! How will it know!
It is hot at core as heat; it is cold outside as snow.

A Law Suit for a Million—A Twelve Year Old Heiress in Dispute—One of the most Remarkable Cases on Record.

One of the most extraordinary cases on record is now pending before Judge Bruce, in the Circuit Court. The facts connected therewith, so far as we have been able to gather them, are as follows:

Why Hon. Benj. F. Butler voted for Jeff. Davis at the Charleston Convention was explained by himself in a speech delivered at Huntington Hall, Tuesday evening, May 15, 1860:

HOW TO TREAT BALKY HORSES.
If you have balky horses, it is your own fault and not the horse's, for if they do not pull true, there is some cause for it, and if you will remove the cause the effect will cease.

THE WAY OF THE WORLD.—We flourish awhile. Men take us by the hand and are anxious about the health of our bodies and laugh at our jokes, and we really think, like the fly on the wheel, that we have some thing to do with the turning of it.

A GOOD JOKE.—A few days since one "Rev." James J. Goodwyn, of Halifax, North Carolina, a Radical preacher, advised the blacks to steal from the whites if they would not employ them, &c.

FROM GEORGIA.—The Legislature Twenty-five Negroes Ousted from the House—A Scene.
Atlanta, Sept. 3, P. M.

Mr. Dickens picked up this story during his last visit to America, and the English papers are repeating it with evident enjoyment: A man in this country knew everybody. Name what celebrity you could—Palmerston, Guizot, Arago, Landseer, Livingstone, Morris—no matter.

Washington, Sept. 1, P. M.
McCulloch and Rollins had a fruitless consultation to-day.

Large expenditures in the War Department, Freedmen's Bureau, &c., will increase the public debt several millions.

FROM WASHINGTON.—In response to a southern Radical, who appealed personally for arms for the southern militia, the President said: "The Federal troops are in a better condition to preserve the peace than a militia drawn from one party to make war on the other."

From Boston.
Boston, Sept. 3, M.
The resolutions adopted by the Convention demand a return to the limitations and requirements of the Constitution, denounce Congress for its usurpation, and characterize the reconstruction acts as preposterous, unconstitutional and revolutionary.

An official letter from Washington states that unless a Job Printer produces work, which is sold by himself, or by others on his account, he is not liable to manufacturer's tax.
