

COMMUNITY HAPPENINGS

BY HENRY H. SMITH

The many friends of Mrs. Rogers are glad to learn that she is improving nicely from a severe burn on the arm.

Mrs. R. L. Carpenter of 809 Baldwin Ave. spent the week end in Lincolnton. On her return home she was accompanied by Mrs. J. A. Carpenter and Mrs. Chavity Grier, the latter a sister in law of Mrs. Sam Pemberton of W. Hill street.

Mrs. Mary Williams of E. Liberty St. has returned from Greensboro, where she accompanied her daughter Miss Shirley Williams, who entered the Woman's College. They motored.

Well, we saw the great parade of Bishop Grace and his followers last Sunday. It was wonderful and a sight to behold. We have never seen anything like it before. As they sing "I'm going to do what Daddy Grace says," I know they must mean it, for we never would follow no daddy or mama either like they follow their daddy Go on children if you think that you are right.

Well, the numbers writers were in the parade last Sunday. You can now find them in everything and in every church. They are still in the choir too. Revival or no revival, they are on the job.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Blake, Jr. of 410 E. 1st St. left the city Monday for Battsburg, S. C. where they will spend ten days vacation. They were accompanied by Caesar the 3rd.

W. W. A. L. Sewing Club met Sept. 26th at the home of Mrs. Estella Smith of Cobbleway St. The club opened in regular form and after the transaction of all business had been completed the members were gracefully served by the hostess.

The way of the transgressor is hard, and if you do not remember and keep the Sabbath Day, you cannot hit Monday.

The Hi-Y A and L. Club met Friday, Sept. 26 at the home of Mrs. Lula Johnson of 509 South Caldwell street. This being a social meeting the time was spent playing different games, after which the club was delightfully served by the hostess and adjourned to meet Oct. 10th at the home of Mrs. S. L. Johnson, 510 North Myers street.

Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Gilbert of Wilmington, Del. and Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Richardson of Philadelphia, Pa. motored to the city enroute to Morganton and spent the week end with Mrs. Mamie L. Hunter of 315 S. Fox St.

Mrs. W. S. Hunter of Huntersville is visiting in the city as the guest of Mrs. Buster.

Mr. W. H. Pearson, Manager of the Carolina Funeral Home and one of the founders of the Colonel Charles Young Post of the American Legion Drum and Bugle Corp of this city presented us a ticket to attend the American Legion (formerly Rex) Theatre. If you want to spend an hour of "shonuff" pleasure, follow the crowd to the Legion!

The Evangelist at Clinton Chapel church preached Sunday night from the text "Beware your sins will find you out. Brother, we choir members know that our sins have found us out and we were few in number to hear what you had to tell us about it. Some of us would be better off if we were not connected with the church, because we would not be trying to keep good men who are sinners from joining the church and doing good; but as it is we are stumbling blocks.

Well, it is not only one church and choir in Charlotte that is messed up; it is all of them and they are messed up bad too. We choir members should be good people, but seemingly we are the worst. I cannot see how we got and hold a job, but it is a syndicate and I can't say anything about the other.

SURPRISE BIRTHDAY PARTY

On last Friday night Mrs. Maria Houston was given a surprise birthday party by her husband Mr. H. Houston. Mrs. Maggie Clinton, Rev. R. L. Jones and only a few of their neighbors were present. It was indeed a happy surprise on her birthday. The years we will not mention—only the birthday.

MYERS CHAPEL A. M. E. ZION CHURCH NEWS.

The Rev. R. H. Stitt, pastor of Myers Memorial Chapel church deserves much credit for the good work that he has accomplished within the past seven months. He came here and found a $2,500 debt and has paid the said debt down to $1,500, and above all, can give an account of every penny that has been raised and paid out. Good for them. The community is proud of Rev. Stitt and has proven it by the help that has been rendered to the young man. Messrs Louie Torrence, Frank and Henry Poe helped to complete the cement work on the church without any charge.

Rev. Stitt as a young man has done a great work. All hopes for this church were lost until thru divine arrangements Rev. Stitt took charge and saved the church which all its members are proud of. May he live long to do good for God and Zion.

MORGAN SCHOOL NOTES.

In our 6th grade we have organized a club known as "The Better English Club." The different officers are: Harvey Massey, Pres., Miss Naomi Stewart, Sec'y., Miss Helen Alexander, Councillor, Miss Marjorie Worthy, Treas. We had our first meeting Friday, September 19th which was very interesting. Our aim is to use Clear Correct English at all times.

COMMUNITY BIBLE CLASS

The Community Bible Class met at the home of Mrs. Bell on Baxter St. Friday night, Sept. 26. The class was opened with singing and prayer offered by Mrs. Nancy Woodard. After another song the minutes of the last meeting were read, after which the class was turned over to the teacher who explained the lesson very interestingly. The class was dismissed in the usual order by singing "God Be With You."

WASHINGTON HEIGHTS NOTES

E. J. M., Reporter.

Well, we suppose the readers of The Post decided that Washington Heights News was on an extended vacation last week. No such luck—just a case of old man Rip Van Winkle—slept too long.

And do you know we had grown conceited enough to think the news of this burrough was really missed. We missed it any way.

Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Martin are erecting a lovely new home on Davis Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Banks have moved into their lovely new home on Davis Ave. We welcome them and expect them to be quite an addition to the life of this community.

Master Ed. Warren O'Daniels has returned home after spending some time in Durham with his grandmother.

Miss Mildred Phillips was in the Heights saying "howdy and goodbye" to her friends before leaving to take up her duties as teacher in the Fort Valley school in Georgia.

Miss Willette Morrow continues poorly at the home of her sister Mrs. Arthur Craine on Beatty Ave.

Mr. Oscar DePriest Simmons of Booker Ave. has registered at Smith Univ. for the school year.

Mrs. Susie Davis Timms of Mt Pleasant, N.C. was shaking hands with friends in this burrough for an hour or so last week.

Mrs. Octavia Moore of S. Caldwell St. in company with Mrs. Kinnell of Biddleville spent Sunday in the Heights with friends.

Rev. and Mrs. Ward of Beatty

Ave. were hosts to the Ministers Aid Club of Rev. Ward's church of Mooresville. After the business session a delightful social hour was spent. Delicious refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Clark of Davis Ave. announce the birth of a daughter, Nora Willette on Sept. 25th. Mother and baby are doing just fine. Mrs. Clark is the former Miss Madeline James.

Misses Willie Houser and Dena Little have entered Hampton Institute and Virginia State College.

Mrs. Addie Little is improving nicely from an accident to her knee in a wreck a few days ago while enroute to the funeral of her niece at Rock Hill, S. C.

Mrs. Rebecca Grier Wither spoon of Beatty Ave. has returned home after spending the Summer in New York with her daughters Mrs. Violet and Rath, under going treatment at a hospital. She is much improved in health.

Mrs. H. Robinson and A. L. Huntley and Sonny Robinson spent Tuesday in Pineville with Mrs. Huntley's mother and sister. They did not say they went to pick cotton, but we expect—

Miss Evelyn McClain and sister Mercile and Miss Dewitt Robinson witnessed the football game at Durham.

Mrs. Nettie B. Lindsay Radley of Washington, D. C. in company with Mrs. Mamie Spaulding of Smith Campus was pop calling on old friends in the Heights Monday evening. Nellie is looking fine.

Mrs. Nancy Foster of Oaklawn Ave. has not been well for several days. She is confined to her bed and we trust she will soon be up and out again.
