

CHARLOTTE POST

THE PAPER WITH A HEART AND SOUL

Vol. 7. No. 37

CHARLOTTE, N. C. SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1934

Price 5 cents

Thousands See House Of Prayer Parade

Negro Workers in North Carolina, Alabama, Give Money to Textile Strike

Greensboro, N. C.—(CNA) Although Jim-crowed by the leaders of the United Textile Workers here, Negro tobacco workers have voted to contribute $1 of their miserable weekly wages to aid the textile strike.

Huntington, Ala. — Negro share croppers around Huntington are collecting money for the support of the striking textile workers.

Blacks and Whites in America Will Merge, Says British Lord.

Aberdeen, Scotland. — Before many centuries have elapsed there will not be a single person in America without a certain portion of Negro blood," said Lord Raglan, chairman of the Anthropological Society, before the British Association for the Advancement of Science which is in meeting here. Lord Raglan said that the black and white races of America will merge into one. He added that many persons who believe themselves to be white would find what they didn't expect to find if they visited their ancestral homes in Georgia.

NEGRO ARRESTED ON CHARGE OF MURDER

Howard Henderson, Negro, wanted in connection with the slaying of Helen Ashford here more than a year ago, was arrested by the city police in a house in one of the Negro sections yesterday morning. He was placed in jail without bond and charged with murder.

Henderson was arrested by Officers Blackmon, Hughes, Miller and Yandle.

Minister Arrested for Holding Policy Slips

New York.—(CNS) — The Rev. Raymond C. Cone, pastor of St. Paul A. M. E. church, the Bronx, was held for special sessions on a charge of possessing policy slips, by Magistrate Katz, last week.

Detective Anthony Barro testified that he went to a store and saw the Rev. Mr. Cone there. Barro declared that the minister had a slip of paper which he let flutter to the floor when he saw the detective.

The slip was exhibited in court and Magistrate Katz asked the pastor to copy numbers therefrom that the magistrate might compare the handwriting. The Rev. Cone complied and on the strength of this evidence he was held, but later released on his own cognizance. Mr. Cone is a graduate of Wilberforce University.

Prof. L. H. Hall, who is the General President of the Livingstone Alumni Association. Prof. Hall is the Principal of Price High School, Sansbury, N. C.

'HOT SPOTS' IN HARLEM NOT TYPICAL OF NEGRO LIFE, SAYS LA GUARDIA

New York.—(ANP) — The Harlem "hot spots" visited by tourists and other entertainment hunters are no more typical of life among New York Negroes than are the resorts to which gullible visitors to Paris are escorted typical of the life of France, Mayor Fiorella La Guardia told a group of French vis-

Negro Lawyer to Defend White Woman in Georgia

Atlanta, Ga.—(CNA) For the first time in the history of the South, a Negro lawyer will appear in defense of a white woman when John H. Geer, Atlanta attorney, defends Mrs. Leah Young and Annie Mae Leathers, two white workers arrested for their part in the textile strike.

The women, who are sisters, have been employed by the Piedmont mill in Egan, Ga. They were arrested September 6 while distributing literature to other workers. They are held in $5,000 bail.

Assistant Solicitor John H. Hudson, who prosecuted the case of Angelo Herndon, is himself preparing the indictment against Mrs. Young and Miss Leathers.

Geer was one of the defense attorneys in the Herndon case. With him in his defense of the white women will be Louis Tatham, local white attorney.

itors Friday.

One of the visitors had expressed a desire to see a typical Negro resort in Harlem or a dive.

The mayor told him he could not recommend a place, but asked that he be notified if one be found open after 4 A. M.

"It is all staged for you as an exhibition," he said. "It is not the life of the Normal New York Negro."

Thousands Line Streets To See Bishop Grace And His Followers Parade

Bishop C. M. Grace was in Charlotte last week to hold his Annual Convention. Hundreds of delegates from North and South Carolina attended this meeting, and more than five thousand people jammed the House of Prayer every night to see and hear the Bishop.

Last Saturday the members and visitors were given a picnic on a large farm 6 miles from Charlotte, which the Bishop has bought and will convert in to a park for the pleasure and benefit of his followers. The farm was dedicated Friday, and will be made a place for picnic with swimming pools, grounds for games, and camp sites for boys and girls.

OVER 500 BAPTISED

Sunday morning at 11 o'clock the Bishop held the Baptismal service, over 500 were baptized while 10,000 people looked on.

The parade formed at the Temple on South Long street, and moved on to Third street, thence to Myers, south on Myers to Second, from Second to Brevard; thence to Liberty; from Liberty to Caldwell thence to First street through Davidson to Boundary, thence to Plum street, north on Plum to Stonewall, thence to McDowell, and finally back to the House of Prayer on Long St.

Continued on page 2