MRS. RUTH LAWHORNE
...Great Speaker

STEELE CREEK AME ZION Church's Young Adult Choir who will perform in concert for the first time here Sunday afternoon.

The Greater Steele Creek AME Zion Church Young Adult Choir invites you to their first Musical Program of the year. On Sunday, May 27, at 2:30 and 7:30 p.m. the church is located on York Road. Rev. John Bennett, Pastor, Melvin Phifer, President, Richard Patterson, Treasurer, John Nichols, Organist, Robert Moore, Director.

There should be more organizations in our town like the Alpha Lambda Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.

These beautiful people entertained residents of Aery's Rest Home last week with a delicious dinner at Georgia's Restaurant, 508 Beatties Ford Rd.

In addition to the residents, the Sorors also entertained their mothers and they presented beautiful corsages and boutonnieres to all of their special guests.

It was evident by the verbal and facial expressions of the guests that they enjoyed the tasty dinner and the fellowship with the lovely ladies of the sorority.

The dinner was just one of the many planned activities for Aery's residents as Alpha Lambda Omega focuses this year's program on "Help for the Elderly." Each member of the sorority has committed herself to "personal involvement - NOW! (PIN) as they work with Mrs. Aery and her staff to render "Service to Mankind."

STUDENTS IN THE ART DEPARTMENT of West Mecklenburg High School will sponsor a sidewalk art exhibition and sale on Friday, May 25.

The show will be on the sidewalk between the main building and the cafeteria from 10:30 a.m. until 3:30 in the afternoon.

West Mecklenburg High School is located at 7400 Tuckaseegee Road. The public is invited.

REV. PRESTON PEN- DERGRASS, the pastor of Antioch Baptist Church, is walking tall this week. He was among the proud recipients of his Master of Divinity Degree from the Interdenominational Theological Center of Atlanta, Ga. last week. He received his Bachelor of Divinity degree from Johnson C. Smith back in 1951.

His lovely wife accompanied him on the momentous trip to Atlanta for the great occasion.

AMONG THE EXCEPTIONAL GOOD DEEDS OF OUR COMMUNITY last week was the trip to St. Paul Baptist Church sponsored for the elderly and the handicapped to the Tommy Faile Show last Saturday night. The staff at Television Station WBTW gave each guest a souvenir.

REV. HAROLD AUSTIN, pastor of St. Luke's United Methodist Church, is serving as the Jail Minister for the Charlotte - Mecklenburg County prisoners. According to Rev. Austin, the weekly copy of the Charlotte Post is high among the prisoners' priorities.

THANKS FELLAS! THE CAROLINA MALL Concord will be the setting for the Spring Frolic for the senior citizens.

THE PASTOR'S AID of New Emmanuel Congregational Christian Church has set Monday, June 4, as the date for their annual Fashion Revue which will be staged this year at the White House Inn, starting at six o'clock.

THE WOMEN'S HOME AND FOREIGN MISSIONS SOCIETY will celebrate their anniversary Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Margaret Carothers is the president of the organization and Rev. M.W. Tann is the minister.

AMONG OUR PROUDEST CITIZENS is Mrs. Ruth Rainey Lawhorne, a Charlotte native who now makes her home in Norfolk, Va. She is a graduate of York Road High School and the University of North Carolina at Greensboro and is presently employed at the Naval Supply Center.

Mrs. Rainey is the president of the ATTAC Toast Mistress Club. She took top honors in the Blue Ridge Speech Contest in Richmond, Va. recently, the highest level contest to be won by a member of the Attica Club since its inception in 1960. She is now eligible for the Regional Contest which will be held later in the year.

MRS. VIRGINIA NESBITT was the presiding officer for the Western District meeting of the Court of Calanthe. The Spring affair was held at the Masonic Hall in Tryon. Mrs. Annie Mae Andrews of Charlotte is the Grand Deputy and was in charge of the workshop.

Following the meeting, it was announced that the Dahlia Court of Charlotte will be the host for the meeting next year. It will be held on the fourth Saturday in May.

MRS. DORIS HAMMONDS OF GRIFFITH ST. was the gracious hostess to a family dinner during the recent family reunion of the Hammond family.

Among the out-of-town guests who attended the affair were: Alex Hammonds of New York City, and Miss Bertha Hammonds of the Bronx, N.Y., Other members of the Hammonds family who enjoyed the festivities were: Bertram King, Mr. and Mrs. Theo Washington Jr., Pamela and Andrew Washington, Mrs. Madeline Massey, Miss Judy Harrison, Miss Sharon Harrison, Samuel Harrison, Tony Harrison, Robert Sanders and William Myers.

The second home you live in now.

You know. The one you go home to every night. You may think it's your first home. But then you discover Briarcliffe West. And you realize you've been living in your second home all along. Because you find, on the last unspoiled shore on the East Coast, meticulously-appointed low-rise Garden Condominiums. The interiors? Wall-to-wall carpeting. Custom draperies. Fully-equipped kitchens. With the latest. Like refrigerators with icemakers. And, of course, central air.

Outside? Well, we're in the golfing capital of the world. We can't take credit for that. But we can take credit for the swimming pool, tennis courts and children's play areas.

And the convenience of your own clubhouse. All in America's best climate. With the Atlantic, no less, your neighbor. Two and three bedroom units available now for as little as $31,800 for a two bedroom unit.

So make this home your first. Off Highway 17 at Myrtle Beach at Briarcliffe Acres. Telephone (803) 272-6126.

NFP*

NFP is Navy jargon for the NUCLEAR FIELD PROGRAM. It covers a wide range of technical specialties, all of which require a high level of skill and training. No, you don't have to know thing one about nuclear physics to qualify for the Navy NFP! What you must have is your high school diploma, or GED certificate, skill in math and science, and the willingness to tackle approximately two-years of the most interesting and demanding training the Navy can provide.

This training is no breeze, so don't expect it to be easy—but the challenge will make your future a whole lot brighter—in or after the Navy.

At the completion of your training you will take your place in the Navy's nuclear power program as a highly trained, well paid nuclear propulsion specialist. For complete information call toll-free anytime: 800-841-8000 (in Georgia call 800-342-5855) or mail in this coupon today.

The Navy needs the right people for its NUCLEAR FIELD PROGRAM—it could be you . . .
