

Neal's Cagers

Win Adult

League Title

The Beatties Ford Park Adult Basketball team keeps on rolling.

It completed the regular summer league season at the McCrorey Branch YMCA with a perfect 13-0 record to win the league championship.

Pulling away in the three quarter, Beatties Ford Park crushed the Bucks, 89-75, to win the league title.

The team has won two league championships and as many tournaments in the last two years. Considered a powerhouse in the tough Adult Basketball League, Beatties Ford Park also won six trophies over the past two seasons.

Some of their outstanding players are Jackie Dalton, Ronald Ross, Arthur "Crack" Davis, Milton "Skinny" Hill, Ronald Bailey, Greg "Popcorn" Ross, Marshall "Punch" McClain, Rick Banks, Robert Lyles, Greg Wilkes, Chris Neal, Earl Alexander, Jerry Jones and James Baldwin.

The coach is Fred Neal who is thinking about entering his sharp quintet in the Semi-Pro Adult League in Greensboro in the future.

Award Dinner

The National Football League Player's Association Awards Dinner, honoring outstanding players of the 1972 NFL season, will be the setting of a one-hour special on Channel Nine Friday, Sept. 14 at 9 P.M. The special will include film footage of highlights of the past season's football.

Peter Falk and Buddy Hackett are co-hosts of the dinner, which was taped June 24 in Chicago.

Guests appearing on the Program are Cloris Leachman, Telly Savalas, Jack Klugman, David Janssen and Miami Dolphins coach Don Shula.

Two types of awards were given—first, on the basis of statistics compiled over the 1972 season, and second, on the basis of voting conducted among the players themselves. In each of the thirteen categories there was a winner from both the National Football Conference and the American Football Conference.

DAN WYTHE, (62), leads fullback Mike Gibson, (32), through the Maryland ES defense as an unidentified Golden Bull watches the action from a prone position. Johnson C. Smith won the contest, 19-13, before more than 7,000 spectators at Memorial Stadium here Saturday night.

Golden Bulls Host Virginia Union Here Saturday Night At 8

The Golden Bulls of Johnson C. Smith University, fresh from an opening victory against University of Maryland, Eastern Shore will host Virginia Union University here Saturday night at Memorial Stadium.

Last week Bull coach Eddie McGirt inserted junior running back Mike Gibson in for the injured Bruce Dukes. Gibson responded to the task by piling up over 200 total offensive yards.

Duke should return to the Smith lineup this week, so the Smith backfield should be ready.

The offensive line of the Bulls, led by All-CIAA tackle Billy Corbett, should get a good test from Virginia Union. The Panthers defense suffered the loss of cornerback Bob Jones and All-CIAA, All NAIA tackle Irving Strickland.

The Panther defensive front four averages 6'3" and 241 pounds. The ends are Horace Williams (6-6, 245) and Larry Reed (6-1, 200). Donald Tate (6-4, 300) and Richard Macon (6-3, 230) will man the tackle positions.

The Golden Bull interior offensive line composed of tackles Corbett and George Hill, guards Dan Whyte and Rick Yeaden, and center Linwood Spindle must push the big Panthers early if they want to establish a ground game.

On offense the Panthers feature UNC of the conference's premier runners in halfback Lofell Williams. Williams will be joined in the backfield by sprinter Larry Roberts and quarterback Tim Keeles.

The Smith defense was sporadic in last week's win against Maryland but showed glimpses of brilliance throughout the second half. The return of Arthur Hardy at linebacker has strengthened the Bulls linebacking crew.

The front defensive wall of the Bulls led by senior captain Tom Johnson did a good job of containing the ground game of Maryland in the second half of the game. If the Bulls can score early the defense is not expected to have as much pressure on them as it did in the opener. Action starts at 8 p.m.
