United Methodist Bishop To Aid "The Unemployed"

United Methodist Bishop Earl G. Hunt, Jr., of Charlotte said he is considering asking the 1,200 churches over which he presides to establish "Employment Commissions" to aid those unemployed within the congregations and within the communities. Bishop Hunt, speaking to Western North Carolina Conference leaders attending a meeting here Dec. 3-4, said he learned the value of such local church organizations as he watched them and participated in them as a young boy during the Depression of the 1930s.

The bishop, who has been a leader in giving the laity a stronger voice in the affairs of the Western North Carolina Conference, said a five member "Employment Commission" could help men and women out of work find part time and full time employment, see that they food for their families, and show them that the Church does care by surrounding them with Christian Love and assistance.

Bishop Hunt also told the Conference leaders he is concerned that western North Carolina United Methodists be made aware of the problem of world hunger.

"We will have to adopt a sane, but sensitive approach to world hunger," he said, "because it will be with us the rest of our lives."

Bishop Hunt said, "We must make people aware of the disease of affluence. We are wasting both money and food. There is a need for a revival of Christian austerity within the Christian Church."

Bishop Hunt urged United Methodists to "start within our own families. Take the money you save from cutting back on your eating and give it to help end world hunger."

The bishop told the Conference leaders that he is interested in the Western North Carolina Conference considering "the possible implementation of an office for the promotion of black affairs" similar to that established by Bishop Robert M. Blackburn of Raleigh for the North Carolina United Methodist Conference.

Bishop Hunt said such an office would give western North Carolina United Methodism ways and means of "strengthening the black ministry and the black congregations, and discovering new thrusts such as economic assistance."

The bishop said if such an office were established it could come either within the present staff of the Conference Council on Ministries, or in the creation of a new Conference office.

Bishop Hunt has led the 279,000 United Methodists in North Carolina's Piedmont and western 44 counties for ten years. He presided over the uniting of the predominantly white Western North Carolina Conference and a portion of the predominantly black North Carolina-Virginia Conference.

The Number One priority in the Conference during 1974-75 is racial inclusiveness, within the over-arching priority of evangelism.

Annual Santa's Puppy Sale Set

The week of December 16-20 has been set aside for the third annual "Santa's Puppy Sale" in uptown Charlotte. Puppies from the City's Animal Shelter will be on sale at the Square in Independence Plaza Park adjacent to the new NCNB Tower. The Puppy House will be open from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. daily or until all puppies are sold.

Mayor John M. Belk and Santa Claus are scheduled to open the sale by "buying" the first puppy. All dogs will cost $4.00. The price includes a distemper shot and a check by a veterinarian. At last year's sale 139 puppies were sold. In addition to the Puppy Sale, the Mobile City Hall will be parked on the Square to assist local citizens. Christmas shoppers will be able to purchase reduced bus tickets for the elderly or handicapped, pay water bills or parking fines, register to vote, and pick up holiday safety information.

"From Our House to Your House" reads the tag on the gaily-wrapped box that holds holiday offerings of Christmas Cut-Out Cuties, Golden Fruitcake Cups and Two-Way Friendship Fudge.

THE FIRST STEPS OF OPERATION AWARE

The President says that inflation is Domestic Enemy Number One. And here's how A & P is going to help you fight it. We're starting a new consumer program called Operation Aware. Because we're aware of the problems every consumer is facing today. These are the first steps we're taking to fight them.

1. AN EARLY WARNING SYSTEM ON PRICE INCREASES: THE AWARE LIST.

Every week we will voluntarily post a list of price increases such as those received from manufacturers a full seven days before we actually change our price. That gives you one week to purchase at the old price—subject, of course, to product availability. You'll also find "Be Aware" shelf tags on many frequently purchased items, with the day of the price increase right on the tag. Of course, the Aware List won't include perishables like meat, eggs or fresh fruit and vegetables, where markets fluctuate daily; items controlled by law; or advertised specials. So before you plan your next week's shopping list, check this week's Aware List.

2. A PRICE FREEZE ON A&P PRIVATE LABELS.

A & P voluntarily has put a ceiling on over 1000 A & P Products. (Smaller stores may not regularly stock all items, but a list is available in all stores.) That means prices will go no higher at least until the end of the year, on many products that you use everyday... bread, cheese, pasta, coffee, non-fat dry milk, frozen potatoes, rice, tuna fish, fruit cocktail, frozen dinners and canned peas and corn. Advertised specials below the freeze prices will still be offered. We've put the freeze on our private labels because they represent the best values in our stores. And we'll hold down the prices, even if our ingredient costs go up.

3. OUR 13 POINT CONSUMER PROTECTION POLICY.

It's our continuing commitment to making you an Aware shopper by reminding you of what every A & P store owes you and by informing you of ways to get the most for your money. Look for the signs going up inside A & P stores spelling out all the protection A & P gives you: 1. Guaranteed Satisfaction 2. Exceptional Value 3. Low Price With Absolutely No Compromise in Quality 4. Rain Check-Product Availability 5. Product Freshness Through Open Dating 6. Consumer Information 7. Courteous Service 8. Cleanliness 9. Safe And Healthy Products 10. Shopping Convenience 11. The Butcher's Pledge 12. Variety of Choice and 13. People To People Communication.
