Winston-Salem Enjoying Its Best Football Campaign

Special To The Post
 HAMPTON, VA.—In one of the CIAA big games of the week, Hampton Institute, who is rated number two in total defense in the latest NAIA poll, played tenacious defense as they shut out defending CIAA champions Norfolk State 18-0.
 Norfolk State was only able to accumulate 76 yards in total offense. CIAA passing leader Russ Seaton threw 24 times completing 10 passes for 180 yards and two touchdowns. Norfolk State has won 3 CIAA championships in a row, is experiencing their worst record in the conference since 1972.
 Winston-Salem is enjoying their best football season since 1948 when they had a record of 8-1, downed Fayetteville State 40-18. Timmy Newsome the CIAA leading rusher gained 115 yards and scored three touchdowns in the Rams victory. Newsome's key blocker was senior offensive tackle Gary Raiford who sprung Newsome for a 20 yard scoring run. The Rams gained 385 yards in total offense while holding Fayetteville State to 118. Linebacker Anthony Oates anchored the Rams defense by knocking down two passes, making 18 tackles and three quarterback sacks. Freshman running back Arrington Jones, 6'3" Richmond, Virginia native rushed 10 times for 43 yards and caught one pass for 30 yards. Fayetteville passed 22 times completing only five and had four intercepted.

 Livingstone College got an outstanding defensive job from junior defensive tackle Willie Martin, who smothered Johnson C. Smith with 14 unassisted tackles and blocked a punt that set up a touchdown, as Livingstone went on to their first win of the season 14-2. Livingstone known for its strong defense, also found a new defensive star in freshman defensive end Anthony Chambers, who is a native of Charlotte.
 Chambers, playing in his hometown for the first time since graduating from high school, sacked Johnson C. Smith's quarterback 5 times and had 7 unassisted and 7 assisted tackles. Offensively the Bears' Leroy Nesmith ran 7 times for 83 yards and broke away on a 52 yard gallop for a touchdown. Edward Johnson, Jr. was the leading ground gainer for Johnson C. Smith with 95 yards. Smith's linebacker Alvin Wideman had 8 unassisted and 5 assisted tackles, two interceptions and recovered two fumbles. Both teams entered the contest with identical 0-5-0 records.
 Virginia State could not overcome a 21-0 halftime lead as they were trounced by Howard University 33-0. Hurt by mistakes, the Trojans could not put an offensive drive together to get them across the goal line. One bright spot the Trojans enjoyed was the defensive play of freshman defensive end Leon Taliaferro of Petersburg, Va. Taliaferro sacked Howard's quarterback 7 times and had 10 unassisted and 3 assisted tackles.

 Shaw University also had trouble getting things rolling as Albany State handed them their fourth straight setback of the season 45-6. Defensively the Bears recovered 4 fumbles, but could not capitalize on either. Offensively, Shaw had 5 passes intercepted. Shaw's only score came on a 73 yard pass reception from Cecil Alexander to Wayne Reese. Shaw played without the services of Bo Darden, who did not make the trip.
 Coach Tommy Holmes of Elizabethtown City got his first college win as a head coach as the Vikings beat Fort Bragg 41-0.
 Virginia Union and St. Paul's were idle this weekend.
CIAA NOTES... Cornelius Washington of Winston-Salem and Linwood Hardy of Virginia State came out one and two on interceptions in the latest NAIA poll. While Hampton Institute was number two in total defense and Livingstone was number 5.

Wilson Is Post's Player Of Week
 Curtis Wilson, a 5'6" 165 pound junior tailback for Myers Park High School Mustangs, is the Post High School "Player of the Week". Wilson had a field day against tough East Mecklenburg last Friday night. He gained 106 yards rushing and scored two times on runs of one and four yards. The one that really made the difference was his one yard plunge over left tackle with 37 seconds left in the game.

SCSC Cage Drills To Begin Late

Since taking over the head basketball coaching duties at South Carolina State College five years ago, Tim Autry and his squad have gotten a jump on the rest of the nation with a 12:01 a.m. scrimmage on October 15, the official NCAA date for beginning preseason basketball drills.
 This season, the Bulldogs, defending Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference champions, will be one of the last teams to begin preparation for the 1977-78 season. Autry has not only nixed the midnight scrimmage this season but has decided also to delay drills until Monday, Oct. 24.

 The Bulldog mentor said he chose the later date in order to give his players the opportunity to prepare for mid-term examinations scheduled at the college Oct. 17-19.
 When S.C. State takes to the court, Autry will greet 13 players, among them eight veterans. All five starters from the Bulldogs' 15-11 squad will be back along with three of last season's top five reserves. Five newcomers round out the 77-78 team.

 The Bulldogs, who play a 26-game schedule this season, will open the 77-78 campaign Nov. 24 in the two-day Shriners Classic at the Savannah Civic Center, Savannah, Ga.

Metrolina-Morehouse Club Organized Here

Announcement of formation of The Metrolina-Morehouse Club was made Tuesday by Sam Young Jr., secretary-treasurer of the new group.
 According to Young, the purpose of the organization is "to promote organized giving to Morehouse College and to aid in recruiting for the school, as well as to form a social and civic organization for the Metrolina area."
 Morehouse lists among its more well-known alumni such persons as Martin Luther King Jr., Julian Bond and Maynard Jackson, to name a few.

ley B. Clement - vice president.
 The next meeting of the Metrolina-Morehouse Club will be Sunday, November 13 at 7 p.m. at the Gallery. Anyone wishing further information may call Sam Young at 334-7691 or Wesley Clement at 373-0602.

 Young noted that Morehouse is celebrating homecoming this weekend and added that announcements of other activities will be forthcoming.

Wideman Is Bull Of The Week

The Charlotte Post is proud to announce Alvin Wideman as the "Golden Bull of the Week."
 Wideman plays linebacker for Coach Eddie McGirt's Football Team at Johnson C. Smith University. Wideman who wears number 41, is 5'11" and weighs 200 pounds. This 21 year old Senior Physical Education Major is a native of Greenwood, S.C.

On last Saturday against the Livingstone Blue Bears, Wideman intercepted two passes, both stopping long Blue Bears scoring drives. Wideman also had 12 unassisted and 6 assisted tackles.
 When asked how he feels about the season all this positive thinking young man had to say was "we need a win to get out of our slump."
