

Subscriptions Available To Dance Guild's Concert

Subscriptions to the Greater Charlotte Dance Guild's seventh concert season are now available.

In bringing dance to Charlotte audiences this year, the Guild has added a new twist. As in the past, Charlotteans will have an opportunity to see some of the finest dance this nation has to offer. In addition, the Guild is including in its subscription series performances by local dance companies, thus making it possible for dance enthusiasts to view local work of professional calibre. For the city of Charlotte to boast of such good quality dance is a great accomplishment.

This year's concert season will include four events:

1. In February, 1978, the Pau Taylor Company will perform at Ovens Auditorium. Mr Taylor's choreography re-

Ask Rufus

ASK RUFUS, the latest album by ABC recording artists Rufus featuring Chaka Khan, has been certified platinum by the RIAA.

To commemorate the occasion, ABC Records recently held a champagne reception for the group in the office of label President Steve Diener.

Trichology Corner

Mr. Charles R.B.

QUESTION:

I like my hair dyed, but the color I want calls for pre-lightening. My Beautician says my hair won't stand it. What can I do?

ANSWER:

There are new professional techniques whereby hair can be carried from deep black to most pastel shades without prelightening, also in half the time. This will expose the hair 50 percent less time, and will minimize the damaging effects, also saving time and money. Ask your Beautician to look into this system or check with some one who does it.

Send questions to: Trichology Corner, P.O. Box 16447, Charlotte, N.C. 28216.

The House Of Charles When You Care Enough To Look Your Very Best

flects a zany and zestfully breathtaking kinetic sense that has won high praise from critics and international audiences.

2. The Royal Ballet will perform on film Beatrix Potter's "Peter Rabbit" on March 16 - 18 at the Visulite Theatre. This is a colorful and enchanting film for children of all ages.

3. On April 21, and 22 the New Reflections Dance Theatre will perform at Queens College Dana Auditorium. This concert will premiere the "Claw of the Butterfly," a work choreographed by Gerda Zimmerman, artistic director.

4. The Charlotte Regional Ballet will perform on May 12 at Ovens Auditorium. This concert will include portions of "Swan Lake," one of the oldest and best loved romantic ballets.

The low cost of a subscription is only $15.00, a savings of $1.00 per performance. For more information, write or call the Guild office housed at Spirit Square, 110 E. Seventh Street (374-1619). The Greater Charlotte Dance Guild is a volunteer, non-profit organization dedicated to the promotion of outstanding dance performances in Charlotte-Mecklenburg.
