...Spearheads efforts
Local Choirs To Help Raise Funds

MLK Statue

About 10 religious choirs will gather Sunday at Charlotte's Park Center at 2:30 p.m. to "sing praises to Almighty God" in an effort to raise the $29,239 in cash and pledges for the Martin Luther King Statue Fund Drive to $40,000, according to the Rev. James Barnett, spearhead of the King Memorial effort.
Rev. Barnett said Radio Station WGIV, THE CHARLOTTE POST and his own Barnett Promotions are sponsoring a "Gathering of Choirs" program "to push towards a goal of $40,000. That is, to raise the $29,239 in cash and pledges for the MLK Memorial Statue by about 33 percent."

Barnett noted that the sponsoring groups' actions in this program are not affiliated with nor sanctioned by the Mayor-appointed MLK Memorial Fund Committee that he heads, however the $3 donation requested of each person attending the gathering will be used to support the King Statue effort.

Highlighting the "gathering of 10 or more religious singing groups for the 2:30 to 6 p.m. program" will be Bill Moss and the Celestials from Detroit, Michigan, and the Southern Voices from Mooresville, North Carolina.

Local choirs participating in the gala event will be the Voices of Antioch (Antioch Baptist Church), the Little Rock AME Zion Church Choir, the Young Adult Choir of the Second Calvary Baptist Church, the Youth Choir of First Mount Zion Church, the Voices of Hope of the New Hope Baptist Church, Steel AME Zion's Young Adult Choir, Silver Mount Baptist Church's Mass Choir, the Gospel Harmonettes of Temple Chapel Baptist Church and the Wilmore Community Gospel Singers.

Persons interested in sending donations to the MLK Memorial Fund should mail their contributions to P.O. Box 1895, Charlotte, N.C. 28223.
