

CBS To Provide Nostalgia For Cicely Tyson, March 29

Cicely Tyson, one of many distinguished performers set to appear on "CBS: ON THE AIR," WHO PARTICIPATES IN THE WEDNESDAY, MARCH 29, at 10 p.m. portion of the nine-and-one-half hour recollection to be broadcast on WBTV, Channel 3, was overcome with nostalgia when she read the script devised for her participation.

Miss Tyson, who holds two Emmys for her superb performance in "The Autobiography of Miss Jane Pittman," was asked to do the narration to accompany film clips from "Medical Center," one of the long-running (Wednesday night) fixtures on the Network.

Miss Tyson recalled: "I joined college football superstar O.J. Simpson, though it was before he had gained professional status, when he was the guest star on the first episode of the hospital series.

"There was a lot of excitement on the set back in 1969. My role as the wife of O.J., who played an athlete suffering with a crippling disease, proved especially meaningful to my career. I got favorable feedback from several producers and it led to an important casting on 'Gunsmoke,' for which I won an NAACP award.

"You can imagine my delight when I read the 'CBS: ON THE AIR' script and discovered the 'Medical Center' reference. It brought back many pleasant memories, in particular, being selected for the show."

Left to right, Dick Van Dyke, Cicely Tyson, Buddy Ebsen (standing) and Danny Kaye are co-hosts on "CBS: On The Air" when they join in celebrating 50 years of CBS broadcasting.
