...Memorial United delegate

Oren McCullough

To Attend

Church Meeting

Oren McCullough will be a delegate to the annual meeting of Presbyterian Men when it convenes in Indianapolis, Ind. March 31-April 2.

McCullough is a member of Memorial United Presbyterian Church, 2600 Beatties Ford Road. Rev. Edward B. Newberry is his pastor.

The theme of this national event will be "Living Christ's Mission In Word And Deed" and according to a spokesman, it challenges members to discover the meaning of mission and to take an active part in its accomplishment.

United Presbyterian Men have identified four major areas of concern in which programs are being developed by the National Council. These are Bible study, witness, ministries to families, the supportive roles of lay people and pastors, and active lay involvement in churchwide mission. The addresses and workshops of the Indianapolis meeting are designed to help equip United Presbyterian men in responding to the theme.

Among the program participants will be Daniel W. Martin, president, National Council of United Presbyterian Men, Cincinnati, Ohio, and Clinton M. Marsh, Moderator of the 188th General Assembly (1974) Associate Synod Executive, Synod of the South, Atlanta, Ga.
