Matthews Murkland Begins Week-Long Celebration Here Monday Night

By Teresa Burns
Post Staff Writer

There is something special about a church over 100 years old. As for Matthews-Murkland United Presbyterian Church, the aura of spiritualism no doubt has prevailed throughout the decades.

It seems as if all the hopes, faith and love of former members somehow still exist within the Matthews-Murkland family. Beginning November 3, not only will late members be remembered but members far away and members, who for other reasons can't attend services, will be remembered as well.

For those lucky enough to attend the Homecoming services, an entire week of praise in the Lord's name can be experienced.

Monday, November 3, Rev. Lloyd Morris and The Grier Heights United Presbyterian Church congregation will be the guests.

Tuesday, the Young Adult Choir will perform with Rev. Isiah Phinisee and the New Hampton United Presbyterian Church congregation as guests.

The Men's Council will be in charge of the program Wednesday night. Rev. John I. Jackson and the Clinton Tabernacle A.M.E. Zion Church congregation have been invited.

The Reveleers, and Rev. Kirkpatrick will be present for the Thursday night Homecoming celebration.

Friday, The Vocal Choir will perform and Rev. C. L. Wilco and the Jonesville A.M.E. Zion Church congregation will help Matthews-Murkland celebrate their Homecoming.

Prayer services each night will begin at 7:30 p.m. and sermons at 8 p.m. Sunday at 3 p.m. services will culminate with Rev. Joe L. Spears and his congregation from Salisbury. The public is cordially invited. Rev. D. O. Hennigan is the pastor of Matthews-Murkland, which is located at 6917 Old Providence Rd. SHILOH INSTITUTIONAL BAPTIST
