Dr. Norman Will Participate In Livingstone Seminar

On Wednesday, April 18, at 7 p.m., Dr. Marcona Hines, Dr. Gloria Berry-Holly and Dr. Bryant Norman, former biology majors at Livingstone College, will participate in a seminar in room 201 of the S.E. Duncan Science Building.

The activities are a part of an overall program to expose students to prominent alumni who have made significant contributions to the field of medicine and science.

Dr. Hines is a 1971 graduate of Livingstone and received the M.D. from the University of North Carolina Medical School at Chapel Hill. He practices in Durham with another Livingstone graduate, Dr. Kenneth Banks.

Dr. Berry-Holly is a 1976 graduate of Livingstone and graduated from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Dental School and subsequently served on its faculty. She is practicing dentistry in Hillsboro, N.C. Dr. Norman is a Salisbury native and a 1964 graduate of Livingstone.

He earned his degree in dentistry from the University of Buffalo and currently has a very successful practice in Salisbury.

The public is invited to hear these three outstanding professionals discuss opportunities and recent discoveries in medicine.

Dr. McLean Receives UNCF Appointment

At the annual March meeting of the United Negro College Fund (UNCF), Dr. Mable McClean, president of Barber-Scotia College, was elected vice chairman of the member presidents of UNCF. This is a two-year appointment, after which the vice chairman automatically becomes chairman.

In her new position, Dr. McLean will assist the chairman and have responsibility for answering the calls of UNCF to the worldwide public.

"I do firmly believe in UNCF," says Dr. McLean. "Because I am on-sight in carrying out its mission, I can certainly interpret what UNCF means and what it does for this society."

The United Negro College Fund represents a consortium of 42 predominantly black colleges and universities. All are private and fully accredited. These UNCF institutions provide educational opportunities for over 50,000 young men and women annually.

"The United Negro College Fund firmly believes that better and stronger educational institutions will help us become a better and stronger nation. It is towards this end that the UNCF's efforts are dedicated," concluded Dr. McLean.

Scholarship

The Torrence Lytle High School Alumni Association will present a scholarship this year to an offspring of a graduate of Torrence Lytle High School (1937-1968).

The recipient of the scholarship will have to be planning to attend an accredited school of higher learning.

Graduates are requested to submit a letter stating need and goals, a resume and references from his/her minister and two other members of the community.

Here are other rules for the $500 scholarship: The applicant must be the child or grandchild of Torrence Lytle. The applicant must be in good academic standing, and must be pursuing a bachelor degree.

The applicant must submit a letter stating need a goal along with a resume. References must be submitted from a minister and two other members of the community. The applicant will meet with the Alumni Screening committee for an interview. Letters of application should be submitted by May 15, 1984.

You may send applications to: Torrence Lytle Alumni Association, c/o Mrs. A.E. Brown, Rt. 4, Box 1160, Huntersville, N.C. 28078.

CALL Workshop

The Charlotte Area Literacy League is sponsoring another workshop to help tutors who want to assist illiterate adults in reading and writing skills.

The workshop to train volunteer tutors will be Friday, April 27, from 7-10 p.m. and the following Saturday, 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. All workshops will be taught at the CALL office, 1520 South Blvd.

According to Nancy Campbell, the director of CALL, more than 89,000 adults in Mecklenburg County cannot read and write well enough to fill out a job application. She stated thousands more are in school and need help.

CALL is a volunteer, nonprofit organization. For more information, telephone the office at 375-3433.
