Elizabeth Hamilton Weds

Benjamin Mason Jr.

Wedding bells rang for Elizabeth Ingram Hamilton and Benjamin Mason Jr. as they were united in holy matrimony recently.

Rev. Ellison Bowman, pastor of Henry Chapel AME Zion Church, in Belmont, N.C., officiated the ceremony which took place at the Cedar Apartment club house.

Given in marriage by her son, Alfonza Hamilton, the bride wore a candlelight flowing, floor-length gown. For her headpiece the bride donned a netted veil embellished with flowered appliques.

The matron of honor for the occasion was Mrs. Helen Jones. Len Stevenson, Susie Rickett, Cheryl Hamilton, Ethel Blackmon, Mary Stovall, Luzetta Baker and Shirley Howie were the bridesmaids.

The bride chose Denise LaToya Anderson and Tashika Hamilton as flower girls.

Acting as best man was Frederick Mason. He was assisted by ushers: Donald Mason, Eric Mason, Rev.

William Mason, Anthony Blackmon, Robert Digsby, Craven Allen, Lyndell Alston, and Eric Blackmon.

The bride's mother fashioned a rose pink semi-formal dress with white accessories.

The groom's mother wore an aqua blue two-piece dress with gold accessories.

Organist Charlene Anderson and soloist Shirley Ann Howie provided the music for the nuptial affair.

The daughter of Ada Hamilton and the late Tom Hamilton, the bride is a graduate of Bands Beauty College. She is the owner of Hamilton's Beauty Salon.

A graduate of West Charlotte High School the groom is the son of Laura Mason and the late Benjamin Mason Sr. He is employed by F. T. Williams as a chief mechanic.

Following the reception which was also held at the club house, the couple honeymooned at an undisclosed spot in Florida.

Miss Karin Wansley Weds Michael Dean Calhoun

Before family and friends, Karin Maria Wansley and Michael Dean Calhoun were united as husband and wife in a recent marriage ceremony.

Rev. Clifford Jones, pastor of Friendship Baptist Church officiated the service.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was dressed in a white gown cascaded in ruffles of scalloped Chantilace that flowed into a cathedral train. The veil worn by the bride attached to a Camelot cap which was trimmed with pearls and sequins.

Honor attendants for the bride was Kirsten Baynes and Lisa Evans.

The remaining bridesmaids were Danise Baynes, Marcia Pempton, Renee Pitts and Sandra Robinson.

Little Miss Michelle McKenzie was the flower girl.

Best man for the occasion was Brian Burton.

He was assisted by ushers: Aaron George, Ronald Stanley, Lester Wallace, Marshon Hyatt, Cloy Tyson, Sean Redren and Daryl Williams.

Music for the ceremony was provided by organist, Gerado Stroud and soloists, Lester Wallace and Mack Canada.

The daughter of Charles and Sylvia Wansley, the bride is a graduate of West
