

MCDONALD'S IN GREENSBORO
...State's first fast food restaurant

McDonald's Is Still "Doing It For You"

Sunday, September 30, marks the 25th Anniversary of the state's first fast food restaurant - a McDonald's in Greensboro.

While the design of the typical McDonald's and the ad campaigns which are so "memorable" have changed over the years, the "fast & friendly" service, low prices and menu basics still remain true to founder-Ray Kroc's original concept.

Twenty-five years ago the McDonald's menu consisted of just nine items: hamburgers, cheeseburgers, shakes, fries, Coke, coffee, orange drink, cold milk, and root beer. All but the root beer remain as standard items today, and are joined by the ever-growing list of household names pioneered under the Golden Arches, like Big Mac, Quarter Pounder and Egg McMuffin sandwiches and Chicken McNuggets.

McDonald's is planning a major event on September 30 as a way of saying "thank you" to the millions of customers who've helped make the chain a success here. This event, called "Silver Sunday," will feature regular-size hamburgers, fries and 12 ounce Coke for 25 cents each. (The offer will be good at participating North Carolina and several South Carolina locations from 11 a.m. to 8 p.m. that day.)

Its customers are not the only ones

First Citizens And First State Bank

Propose Merger

A proposed merger of the First State Bank, based in Winterville and with offices in Greenville, into the Raleigh-headquartered First Citizens Bank has been agreed upon in principle by the directors of both banks, according to a joint announcement made by First Citizens Bank Chairman Lewis R. and First State Bank President C.D. Langston.

In the proposed merger, the shareholders of First State Bank may elect to receive either $130 cash or four shares of First Citizens Corporation Series H, 9 percent Cumulative Convertible Preferred, $32.50 par stock or a combination thereof within certain limitations.

The merger is subject to shareholder and regulatory approval.

On June 30, 1984, First Citizens Bank reported assets of $47.3 million and deposits of $41.4 million.

First Citizens Bank, the subsidiary of First Citizens Corporation, serves 60 North Carolina counties with 266 offices in 126 towns. First State Bank operates three offices in Greenville and one office in Winterville.

Minority Enterprise

Development Week

Will Be Celebrated

The week of October 1-5 is "Minority Enterprise Development Week." According to Archie Nance, coordinator with the Charlotte-Gastonia Business Development Center, activities to be held during the week are designed to call attention to existing minority-owned businesses and to praise them for progress gained in industry and in the marketplace.

Functions for the week are as follows: Monday, October 1, Media coverage of local minority and women-owned businesses. Tuesday, October 2, press conference at McDonald's Cafeteria featuring the Mayor's proclamation. Wednesday, October 3, an awards program also at McDonald's cafeteria. Thursday, October 4, the Carolina Minority Business Trade Fair at the Charlotte Civic Center from 8 a.m. to 5:50 p.m. Friday, October 5, an SBA workshop in the Small Business Center at Central Piedmont Community College from 2-5 p.m.

For additional information, contact Nance at 372-6966.

who will profit from Silver Sunday. Ronald McDonald House, which provides temporary housing for the families of hospitalized children, will also benefit. Every participating McDonald's will have canisters on-hand to collect "a little extra silver" on Silver Sunday, all of which will go to Ronald McDonald House.

There are presently over 60 Ronald McDonald Houses in the U.S., including one in Durham and another in Winston-Salem. New houses are planned for Chapel Hill and Greenville, NC, in the near future. Nationally, the Ronald McDonald Houses provide accommodations for over 1,500 families every night, 365 days a year.
