New Miracle Deliverance Temple Will Hold Regular Services At King's

By Teresa Simmons
Post Managing Editor

Members of New Miracle Deliverance Temple and their pastor, Apostle Brunson Davis, will hold their regular services beginning February 10 at King's Funeral Home, 4000 Beatties Ford Road.

Each Sunday from 11 a.m. until 1 p.m. worship services will be held in the new beautiful auditorium of King's. The public is cordially invited to all services. For more information call 394-3733. Come and be blessed by the Hand of God.

According to Apostle Brunson Davis, pastor of New Miracle Deliverance there will be a supernatural Holy Ghost service held at King's Funeral Home February 10 beginning at 4 p.m. Guest speaker will be Prophet Alonza B. Jones of the United Temple Church of God in Salisbury. He will be accompanied by his congregation. "Prophet Jones is a powerful man of God. The public is invited to come and be blessed by the Hand of God," Apostle Davis commented.

Carolina Rankin is the proud recipient of a plaque honoring her as "The Woman of the Year" at Greater Bethel A.M.E. Church. The award was given to Mrs. Rankin after she raised the most money in Greater Bethel's Women's Day Program. She had competed against seven other contestants, Evelyn Carrothers, Geraldine Hynes, Beulah McDowell, Ruby McGibony, Mary McKinney, Alberts Prince, Bernadine Rankin and Joyce Simpson. A class leader and president of the Senior Choir, Mrs. Rankin has been a member of Greater Bethel for 15 years and for 15 years has taught Adult Sunday School Classes. "The priority reason for attending church," she says, "is to give honor and worship to the Lord. Then also, church is important for the fellowship that you have with other Christian individuals. There is great strength in fellowship." A family woman, Mrs. Rankin and her husband Nelson have raised five children, Nelson, Jr., Bernadine, Bobby, Jerry and Sherwood. They now have 10 grandchildren. Mrs. Rankin likes to sew as a hobby. She also sews professionally as a seamstress with Trimline Foundations. "I enjoy bowling and swimming," she admits. "These activities keep me in pretty good shape for a grandmother."
