.....Reception honoree

Farrars To Host Reception For D.G. Martin

On May 11 from 5-8 p.m. a reception will be held at the home of Charles and Shirley Farrar, at 4100 Carmel Acres Dr., in honor of former congressional candidate D. G. Martin.

This reception is being held to help reduce the approximate $60,000 campaign debt that remained after the election.

According to one Martin supporter, Alfred Glover, those who supported D.G. in his campaign should continue to support him as he attempts to reduce his debt. "We (supporters of Martin) feel that D.G. ran to give everyone a fair voice in government. In the process, a debt was created and now he's asking people to help him reduce this deficit."

Scheduled to be present at the reception are state representatives Bob Jordan, Lacy Thornberg and chairman of the North Carolina Democratic Party, David Price.

Food for the reception will be catered by award winning chef, Vernon Alexander of the Radisson Hotel.

The Michael Porter Trio will provide the musical entertainment.

Among the leading citizens who are supporting this endeavor are Dr. and Mrs. Robert Albright, Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Alexander Jr., Dr. Mildred B. Davis, Mayor and Mrs. Harvey Ganit, attorney Michael Todd and others.

Tickets are $15 each and can be purchased from Shirley Farrar at 542-2142.

"but." She next tells that she has it all planned out. "I'll go to graduate school, then get married, then go to medical school. Afterwards I'll establish my practice and then have children," she relates. Good luck.

"My father is a great role model," Sharon claims of her dad, Jimmie, Jr. "He assures me if I want something I must work for it. He's told me, too, to have patience. If you work hard for something you'll appreciate it more and if you have patience nine times out of 10 things will come your way."

"My mother is like a best friend," Sharon describes. "I admire her also." Sharon's mother's name is Alice. She also has one younger brother, Jimmie.

In her personal life, Sharon concludes, she has learned that it is always best to be yourself. She explains, "You have to have your own identity. You shouldn't let people persuade you to do things you wouldn't normally do just to be thought of as part of the 'in crowd.'"

On more worldly matters, this week's beauty is opposed to the hostility between nations. "It seems to stem from a lack of communication," she's deduced. "That's how trouble gets started."
