James Robert "Jimmie" McKee, 72, will be arrested and escorted to a makeshift jailhouse at the Marriott Hotel City Center in uptown Charlotte.

Doesn't sound too much like punishment does it? It's not meant to be. McKee along with about 100 other civic, business and political leaders and celebrities, including Bill Johnson, publisher-editor of The Charlotte Post, will be arrested on May 15 and 16 by special policemen.

The arrests are planned in support of the Fourth Annual Jail-A-Thon sponsored by the Mecklenburg Unit of the American Cancer Society. Each "jailbird" will have to raise "bail" money in advance or stay in jail.

Persons wanting to help free Jimmie McKee can make their checks payable to the American Cancer Society and note that it's for Jimmie McKee's bail. A special "Free Jimmie McKee Fund" has also been set up at the Excelsior Club, 921 Beatties Ford Rd.
