

Miss Denise Richards Exchanges Solemn Vows With Angelo Q. Reid

Two lives became one as Denise Annette Richard and Angelo Quentin Reid exchanged solemn vows recently before friends and family.

The ceremony, which took place at Johnson C. Smith University Chapel, was officiated by Rev. Thomas Lee and Rev. Evelyn Terry.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Elbert Richard Sr.

As her maid of honor, the bride selected her sister, Brenda Richard. Bridesmaids for the wedding were Charlese Chapman, Yolanda Foster, Lisa Harper, Tia Murdock, Vanessa Gladney, Sandra Johnson, Patricia Welch, Patricia Wallace, and Sheila Cooper of Decatur, Ga.

Juniors bridesmaids were Carmen Lee and Tekeshia Lowery of Cornelius.

Flower girls were Shayla Richard and Tequilla Welch.

The groom selected his father, Gordon Reid, as his best man. Melvin Cathey, O. Chapman Jr., Muriel Reid Jr., Norbert Reid, Tony Reid, Jerry Potts, and Gary Potts of Cornelius, Paul Daye of Durham, and Charles Hinsley of Asheville were the groomsmen.

Ushers for the wedding included John Anderson and Malcolm Reid. Acolytes were Patrick Torrence or Cornelius and Elbert Richard III.

Music for the ceremony was provided by organist Terry Oates and soloists Jerry Oates and Brenda Sullivan.

Immediately following the wedding, a reception was held at Grimes Lounge at the university. Music was furnished by the Michael Porter Trio.

The daughter of Mr. Elbert Richard Sr. and the late Mrs. Arlie Mae Richard, the bride is a graduate of UNC-Greensboro. She is presently studying for her master's

Delta Eta Chapter Honors

Mrs. Dash

Special To The Post
Orangeburg - Mrs. Ida G. Dash was recently honored for her outstanding contribution to nursing during the Nurses Week Celebration of the Delta Eta Chapter of Chi Eta Phi Sorority, Inc. held at Allen University in Columbia, S.C. She was named 1985 Outstanding Contributor to Nursing.

Mrs. Dash, an active nurse for 40 years, recently retired from South Carolina State College where she was nursing supervisor. She was cited for her 29 1/2 years at the college as a counselor, teacher, friend and guiding light for thousands of students from across the United States and several foreign countries, as well as members of the college family.

"While Mrs. Dash is retiring from daily active duty this year," said Mrs. Judy Bradley, chairperson of South Carolina State College's Department of Nursing, "her services and contributions will be felt forever. She is a role model for the Chi Eta Phi nurse as well as other nurses and potential nursing students."

Her college contributions were also lauded by Dr. Oscar P. Butler, vice president for student affairs at the college.

Mrs. Dash has been a member of the National League for Nursing, the NAACP, the Ebony Nurses Club, Holy Trinity Catholic Church, the Ladies Guild Organization, Church Women United, the Lower Savannah District Nurses Association, the South Carolina Nurses Association and the American Nurses Association.

Mrs. Bradley spoke on Nursing Education prior to the award ceremony. Ms. Barbara Richardson, sorority member, introduced Mrs. Dash and presented the award.
