Shiloh Celebrates Anniversary And Appreciation For Rev. And Mrs. Davis

By Teresa Simmons
Post Managing Editor

The Shiloh Institutional Baptist Church family will celebrate their eighth anniversary and appreciation day for their pastor and family, Rev. and Mrs. Tommy G. Davis, beginning with a pre-anniversary and appreciation concert on Saturday, July 6 at 7 p.m.

The McCullough Notes Choir of the United House of Prayer will render this year's concert. Nationally known as one of the finest gospel church choirs in the country, the McCullough Notes Choir is in great demand to perform and has sung in many religious functions throughout the eastern states.

Along with the McCullough Choir, Shiloh Institutional J.A. Choir will render several selections at the beginning of the concert.

Under the direction of Tommie Campbell, this choir also has established itself as a most able choir whose versatility in music has thrilled the hearts of many during the past several years.

The celebration will continue with the regular Sunday morning worship service July 7. Immediately following morning service a fellowship dinner will be served in the Fellowship Hall of the church for all members and friends of Shiloh Institutional.

The celebration will conclude with the eighth anniversary and the appreciation worship service at 4 p.m. Rev. Albert Davis, the pastor of the Solid Rock Baptist Church and his congregation will be the guest speaker.

Assuming the pastorate of Shiloh in July 1977, Rev. Davis has shown his ability to successfully lead a congregation and his strong commitment to the Christian cause. A jovial, gregarious and intelligent individual, Rev. Davis shies away from publicity and is modest about his many accomplishments since his arrival at Shiloh.

Among many of his achievements are the doubling of membership, paying off the mortgage of the edifice at 208 South Bruns Ave., leading the congregation into the purchasing of the Greenland Ave. Baptist Church at 2400 Greenland Ave. in 1983.

A native of Anderson S.C., Rev. Davis is a graduate of Claflin College, Orangeburg, S.C., and the Interdenominational Theological Center, Atlanta, Ga. He is married to the former Heppie I. Jones who is employed as a teacher in the Gaston County School System. They have two sons, Derrick and Daryl.
