

Howard C. Barnhill
.....To study bond system

Howard Barnhill

Appointed To

Special Committee

Representative Howard C. Barnhill of Mecklenburg County has been appointed by House Speaker Liston B. Ramsey to a special committee to study the North Carolina bail bond system.

The study will be conducted under authority of the Legislative Research Commission and will include an examination of the bail bond forfeiture procedures. The committee has been instructed to "report to the 1985 session of the General Assembly its findings and recommendations for a uniform and effective bail bond system."

Barnhill, of Charlotte, represents a portion of Mecklenburg County in the 60th House District.

Ruth Easterling

To Co-Chair

Special Committee

Representative Ruth M. Easterling of Mecklenburg County has been appointed by House Speaker Liston B. Ramsey as co-chairman of a special committee to study the matter of child support in North Carolina.

To be conducted under authority of the Legislative Research Commission, the study will cover "all issues of child support." Included will be the question of whether a State commission should be established to examine matters related to child support.

Mrs. Easterling, a resident of Charlotte, is chairman of the House Committee on Children and Youth. She represents a portion of Mecklenburg County in the 58th House District.

Marvin K. Blount Jr.
.....Democratic candidate

Marvin Blount Jr.

Declares Candidacy

For U.S. Senate

Greenville, NC - Marvin K. Blount Jr., a local attorney, has announced that he will formally declare his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for the United States Senate on November 20 in Raleigh.

Blount will repeat his formal announcement during a series of state-wide events spanning the three-day period from November 20-22.

"After serious consideration, I have decided to take this most significant step," Blount said.

"This will not be a traditional campaign," he added, "and I look forward to letting my fellow citizens know how this will truly be their campaign for the United States Senate."

A native of Greenville, Blount received a law degree from Wake Forest University in 1966.

Four years later he became the youngest Special Superior Court Judge in North Carolina history. He resigned from the bench in 1973 to return to the private practice of law in Greenville.

His parents also live in Greenville. Blount is married to the former Mary Margaret Mitchell of Goldsboro and has three children.
