

CAF Gets Excellence Award

The Charlotte Area Fund has received the Director's Award for Excellence from the North Carolina Association of Community Action Agencies.

The award was presented by Joel New, Director of the Division of Economic Opportunity, Department of Natural Resources and Community Development, at the Association's annual meeting in High Point on November 21.

The Charlotte Area Fund was honored because of its outstanding achievement in assisting low income families move out of poverty. The Fund exceeded goals in

Human Service

The Charlotte-Mecklenburg Community Relations Committee will conduct a survey in January to identify and catalogue all local human services programs sponsored by churches and other religious organizations.

A directory of human service programs is scheduled to be published in spring 1986. The directory will enable citizens to determine the extent of church involvement in serving local community needs. It will also allow the service groups to see what additional services are needed which can be provided by the private sector.

The Community Relations Committee is a group of 60 people appointed jointly by the mayor and chairperson of the County Commission.

Property Taxes Due

The deadline for paying 1985 Charlotte-Mecklenburg property taxes is Monday, January 6, 1986. Payments received after this date will be subject to interest charges of two percent the first month and 3/4 percent every month thereafter until the bill is paid. Advertisement of unpaid taxes will occur after January 31, 1986, and additional cost will be added to cover advertisement charges.

Payments may be made by mail to the City-County Tax Office, P. O. Box 31457, Charlotte, N.C. 28231, or in person at the County Office Building, 720 East Fourth Street. For more information on your property taxes, call 336-2813.

Democrats To Meet

The seniors of the Democratic Party will meet Saturday, December 14, at 10 a.m. at the home of Jane Gallagher, 1229 Ferncliff Rd. The guest speaker, Monroe T. Gilmore will discuss the subject, the American Association of Retired People. For further information, contact Jennie Pedigo at 545-4400.

Muffin Workshop

The Mecklenburg County Park and Recreation Department will sponsor a Muffin Basket Workshop at McDowell Park, located on Highway 49 South, on Saturday, December 14, from 9:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Learn to make a muffin basket that measures 7"x11" with two side handles. The basket is made out of reed and splint.
