Institute Of Divine Metaphysical Research Meets In Charlotte

About 3,000 people are expected to attend the Southern Regional Convention of the Institute of Divine Metaphysical Research Inc. July 16-20 in at the Charlotte Convention Center.

The institute was founded by the late Dr. Henry C. Kinley in an effort to reconcile the differences between science and religion. Kinley, a black man, had a vision in 1931 which he said showed the similarities between the Bible and nature. He set up the first school in Springfield, Ohio in 1931. Now the school is based in Los Angeles and there are branch schools throughout the United States, Canada, Mexico, Jamaica and Panama. There is also a branch school in Charlotte.

Included among the topics to be discussed are: "The holy Trinity-Fact or Fiction"; "The Truth About Creationism"; "Science and Religion-Can They Co-Exist in Harmony?"

The five-day event of lectures and meetings is free and open to the public.

For a schedule of lectures, call 393-8815

Is There Proof that the Bible and Science Agree?

- Ever wondered why things happen in threes?
- Is there scientific fact proving the existence of the Creator?
- Do you know why man has 33 vertebrae, 24 ribs and 206 bones?
- Why are there nine planets in the universe?
- Why do trees branch out into "Y's"?

Find the answers to these questions and more at free public lectures given by the Institute of Divine Metaphysical Research Inc., a non-profit, non-denominational, religious and scientific research organization, at the:
