'Set It Off' CD is a winner

Vogue makes an appearance with the rock-soul goody titled "Don't Let Go (Love)." The ladies' characteristically tight harmonies soar over bombastic guitars. Busta Rhymes delivers the edgy "Live To Regret," while Bone-Thugs-In-Harmony add "The Days of Our Lives," which sounds like the last three singles it released.

There are some losers. Simply Red's reading of Aretha Franklin's classic "Angel" leaves me cold. Bluelight's "Sex Is On My Mind," is tuneless.

But the real joy of this piece is "Missing You" done by Brandi, Tamia, Gladys Knight and Chaka Khan. It's one of the finest combinations of old school and new kids on the block that I've heard in a while. Knight and Khan supply the real guts to the songs while Brandi and Tamia add sweetness and innocence. It's a fabulous grouping, one that should rack up many awards early next year.

Comedy, Jazz Flavor Comes To Fourth Ward

Fourth Ward has a new addition to its already charming flavor. Harvey's Garage has opened a new location at 516 N. Graham Street, in Historic Fourth Ward.

The new Harvey's has a different format from its first location on Park Road. It has a more quaint atmosphere, complete with fireplace and outdoor dining on the patio.

The menu has some of the old favorites, Harvey's Crableg, as well as some new features. Deli sandwiches served with a side dish are plentiful. You have a choice of six, including a cajun style Grouper on a fresh baked Kaiser roll.

The new "Express" menu offers a wide variety of salads, "Optional Equipment" (side orders), desserts, and Raw Bar with shrimp and oysters.

Harvey's has something for every day of your week end. Thursday, Friday and Saturday, you're bound to find patrons listening to live Jazz on the patio, and a Crableg dinner special. Or you can have Sunday Brunch and relax with jazz before beginning the work week.

Comedy also made its debut in Fourth Ward Friday Sept. 13 with two performances by comedian D.S., from the Comedy Zone.

For a change in your lunch or dinner menu, stop at Harvey's Garage Deli & RawBar Fourth Ward. Hours of operation are Monday - Friday 11:30 a.m.-10:00 p.m., Saturday 11:30 a.m. - 11:00 p.m. and Sunday 11:00 a.m.-2:00 p.m.
