

UNC ASHEVILLE

North Carolina's
Public
Liberal Arts
University

"FOR STUDENTS WHO SEEK A PUBLIC EDUCATION
IN A SMALLER CAMPUS ENVIRONMENT,
UNC ASHEVILLE
IS A GREAT CHOICE."

— THE PRINCETON REVIEW

EXPLORE DIVERSITY

WITH AN AFRICAN AMERICAN PERSPECTIVE.

Understand it.

Use it creatively in connecting with experiences that can reach beyond the black population.

UNCA offers:

- African American Colloquium, a group of students, faculty and staff who form a collective voice on campus and an important network of support.
- African American Student Association, whose goal is to foster leadership, cooperation and responsibility.
- Africana Studies, a new academic minor, seeks a fuller understanding of African Americans' role in society.
- Ebony Ensemble, a performance group specializing in gospel music.
- Project We Hear You, a peer mentor program, provides academic, social and emotional support to incoming minority students.

For more information or to schedule a campus visit ,
call the Office of Admissions at 704/251-6481 or 1/800-531-9842 (toll free in N.C.).
Visit our home page at <http://www.unca.edu>,
and send us e-mail at admissions@unca.edu.