Middle-schooler invited to leaders conference

FROM STAFF REPORTS

Ellena Forney of Charlotte will join 200 middle school students from across the U.S. at the Junior National Young Leaders Conference March 6-11 in Washington.

The conference introduces students to the tradition of leadership throughout U.S. history, while helping them develop their own leadership skills. Ellena, a student at Northridge Middle School, will participate in educational activities and presentations led by individuals in high-level positions as well as young people who exercise leadership skills within their communities.

James Hinsley has been nominated as a United States Achievement Academy National English Award winner.

English teacher Sharlene Horton nominated James, an eighth-grader at J.T. Williams Middle School. Nominees must have at least a 3.0 grade point average and exhibit skills and aptitude in English as well as dependability, enthusiasm and leadership.

Air National Guard Airman 1st Class Jerri L. Edwards has graduated from basic military training at Lackland Air Force Base in San Antonio, Texas.

During six weeks of training,

Edwards studied the Air Force mission, organization and military customs and courtesies, performed drill and ceremony marches and received physical training, rifle marksmanship, field training exercises and special training in human relations.

Stephanie Noonan has joined MONY Group's MONY Life Insurance Co.

and MONY Securities as a financial professional in Charlotte.

Before joining MONY Group, Noonan was executive director of the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Senior Center.

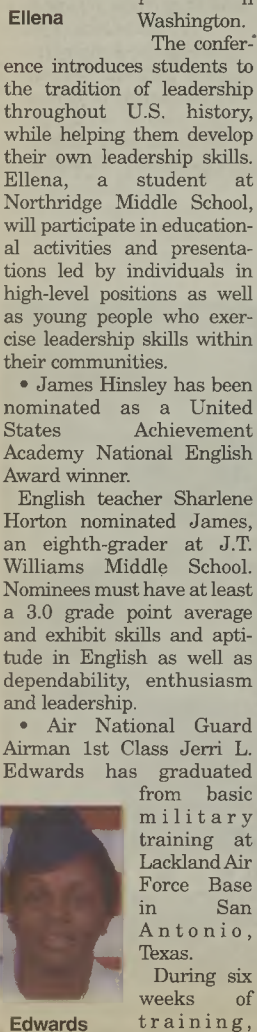

Michelle McGowan has joined Charlotte Repertory Theatre as office manager.

She will be responsible for managing day-to-day operations in the Rep's administrative headquarter in the North Davidson area and for facilitating the volunteer program.

McGowan worked as the Rep's box office manager from 1990-95, then spent seven years at Bovis Lend Lease, where she was executive assistant to the chief financial officer and later as corporate quality manager.
