

PEOPLE OF NOTE

JCSU's Lide named an All-American Scholar

Aisha Lide has been named a Collegiate All-American Scholar by the United State Achievement Academy.

Lide, a Harding High School graduate and senior at Johnson C. University, was selected based on a minimum grade point average of 3.3 and nomination by a JCSU official or qualified sponsor.

Lide

Lide's recognition will appear in the Collegiate All-American Yearbook, a national publication.

• Joyce Freeman, executive director of Loving Touch Adult Day Health Care Center, was presented a certificate of appreciation by the Mecklenburg County Department of Social Services.

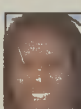

J. Freeman

Loving Touch provides organized programs of services and activities in a group setting for handicapped and disabled adults. The certificate was for Loving Touch's support of the Work First employment services program.

• Jennifer Heath was one of 451 students to graduate Davidson College last month.

A graduate of Independence High School, Heath earned a degree in anthropology. Her extracurricular activities included membership in the Black Student Coalition and African Student Coalition. She was named to the National Society of Collegiate Scholars and Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities.

• Bobby Bienaimé and Brittany Sumpter of Johnson C. Smith University were named to the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association All-Academic second team.

Bienaimé

Bienaimé, a computer engineering major and basketball player, graduated in May with a 3.82 grade point average, earned the Coca-Cola Academic Award as the senior with the highest grade point average. He also earned the Fluor Foundation Scholarship for computer engineering with a GPA of at least 3.0.

Sumpter, a junior basketball player, was named all-CIAA and all-tournament. A communications arts major, Sumpter has a 3.5 GPA and is a reporter on JCSU's student newspaper.

T. Freeman

• Toni Freeman has been elected treasurer of the Executive Committee of the Association of Junior Leagues International. Freeman, director of project research and evaluation at the Duke Endowment, is a past president of the Junior League of Charlotte, which she joined in 1993. She has held positions on both the Nominating Committees for the Association of Junior Leagues International and Junior League of Charlotte.

• Darnell McKenzie will attend the Presidential Classroom Entrepreneurship and Global Business Program next month in Washington.

McKenzie, a student at East Mecklenburg High School, will work with his peers on a group project during the July 8-15 conference, apply new skills and ideas in business-related endeavors.
