

THIS IS CHOWAN'S NEW SWIMMING POOL

When the trustees of Chowan began their plans for adding new buildings and equipment, one of the very first things they decided to add was a convenient swimming pool and here it is in the above photograph. It is conveniently arranged in the basement of the new building, and directly beneath the combination auditorium stage—indoor gymnasium, with winding stairs leading from above. The shower baths are also located next to the swimming pool. It has proven to be the most popular of all the college equipment.

CAMPUS NEWS

At the annual meeting of the board of trustees it was voted to place six alumnae on the board. Two representatives, Mrs. W. A. Blount, Roper, and Miss Sue Brett, Winton, were elected for next year.

Mrs. Clark and the three Clark boys are spending the summer with Mrs. Clark's parents, near Pittsboro, N. C.

Dr. Weaver attended the commencements at Mercer University and Wake Forest College.

Work on the new dormitory is progressing rapidly. It is expected that the new rooms will be ready in ample time for the opening in September.

Fourteen students are in attendance on the Chowan College summer school making up entrance conditions under a faculty composed of Miss McDowell, Miss Gladiola Parker and Miss Ruth Wilkins.

Dr. G. W. Pascal, of Wake Forest, Dr. B. W. Spilman, of Kinston and Mr. Hugh L. Story, of Edenton, are the new members of the board of trustees.

Miss Lyndal Denny, who is assisting in the office this summer, spent last week with Miss Jessie Marie Parker, at Potecasi.

The history of the Portsmouth Baptist Association by Rev. Reuben Jones, (Raleigh 1881) is a recent addition to the college library. The book gives some especially interesting information about the early history of the college.

The following announcement will be read with interest by all Chowan College students during the past year.

SCHOOL CONSOLIDATION WINS AT HARRELLSVILLE

By an overwhelming vote, the proposition to consolidate the schools of Harrellsville Township was carried last Saturday, at an election held in conjunction with the regular primary. This township was already partly consolidated; and with the plan made inclusive the school at Harrellsville will probably be enlarged and the faculty increased, to take care of the annexed territory.

Como increased its tax rate on the same date. Maneys Neck Township is now working under the consolidation plan. The increase in the tax rate was necessary to take care of a new building. The vote there carried by a very slight margin.

Alumnae To Have Unified Program

District Leaders Have Been Appointed To Reorganize In A Surer Footing

A new era in alumnae work is forecasted as the result of the Alumnae Conference held on May 19, when a new system of alumnae work was projected by a number of leading alumnae called together to discuss the future of the alumnae association.

The plan adopted involves the division of the state into alumnae districts with a district vice-president in charge. While the new plan of organization is somewhat in the nature of an experiment it is certain that with a more coherent organization great good will necessarily result. Definite objectives will be presented to the different districts through the vice-presidents as soon as the work of organization can be completed.

The following districts with their vice-presidents have already been formed:

Ahoskie, N. C., Miss Mina Holloman
Colerain, N. C., Mrs. D. R. Britton
Como, N. C., Mrs. Jethro Majette
Hobbsville, N. C., Mrs. W. H. Hollowell
Hertford, N. C., Mrs. L. W. Norman
Littleton, N. C., Miss Daisy Bowers
Macon, N. C., Mrs. H. V. Scarborough
Norfolk, Va., Mrs. G. W. Simpson
Powellsville, N. C., Mrs. Will Cowan
Roper, N. C., Mrs. W. A. Blount
Severn, N. C., Mrs. J. L. Long
Union, N. C., Mrs. W. A. Miller
Wake Forest, N. C., Mrs. Will Dixon
Weldon, N. C., Mrs. Blanche B. Sawyer

Woodland, N. C., Mrs. J. P. Griffin

A notable step was taken by the association in founding a permanent scholarship to be known as the Eunice McDowell scholarship in honor of Miss Eunice McDowell, whose faithful and tireless work among the alumnae has been outstanding through the years. The scholarship will later be endowed. It is hoped that other endowed scholarships will follow.

GREATER COSTS LESSEN ATTENDANCE OF LATIN AMERICANS

Increase in tuition charges and general cost of living in the United States is reflected in the smaller number of students and teachers from Latin America attending schools in the United States during the past year, according to L. S. Rowe, Director General of the Pan American Union. As a result of the greater costs, arrangements have been made in many instances whereby Latin-American teachers give Spanish lessons to meet their living expenses while they are pursuing their studies in American institutions. To secure a larger interchange of students with the Latin-American countries the Pan American Pedagogical Congress is working for a mutual recognition of educational credentials.—School Life.
