

Baptist Students Gather Again This Summer In Retreat

For the Fourth Year They Will Meet At Ridgecrest

DELEGATES COMING FROM MANY STATES

Fine Program of Work and Play Has Been Arranged

For the fourth year Baptist students will gather this summer in their annual Student Retreat at Ridgecrest, North Carolina, seventeen miles east of Asheville. The attendance has exactly doubled each successive year at this meeting. The goal this year is four hundred. The slogan is "Meet the Four Hundred at Ridgecrest in the Land of the Sky." Delegations are expected from Maryland to New Mexico—from Missouri to Florida. The dates are June 28 to July 5—eight great days.

The Program
Intensive classes and discussion groups under leaders who are real specialists will cover the following subjects, vital to student life on the campus: Methods in Baptist Student Union Activity, Up-to-Date Missions, Vocational Guidance, Christian Student Problems, Poster Making and Recreation. Some of the South's greatest inspirational speakers will support the programs. Some of them are Dr. Lincoln Hulley, president of Stetson University, DeLand, Florida, one of the outstanding men of the nation; Dr. Henry Alford Porter, of Charlottesville, Virginia, one of the most popular of all speakers for students; Dr. John L. Hill, of Nashville, Tennessee, who knows students and their life as do few men of America; Mr. William Hall Preston and Miss Ethel McConnell, student secretaries of south-wide acquaintance and popularity. Others to be announced later. A special feature will be "Officers Training Hour" for officers of the B. S. U. and exclusive conferences for student secretaries and prospective secretaries. A specialist will have direction of outing, bathing, boating, hiking, camp-fire conferences, fishing, golf and games of various kinds.

How They Will Come
For those who are so sedate as to ride on trains a special rate has been offered. Leaving home on the 24th and 25th of June a round trip of one fare plus $2.00 is possible. Regular tourist summer rates at all dates. A Ford caravan will come from some States. A truck will bring a dozen from Texas. The two unique fellows who "hitch-hiked" for fifteen hundred miles, from Abilene, Texas, last year have served notice that they will hike the same way this year. A "covered wagon" (Ford) came from Mississippi last summer. It's still on four wheels. Oklahoma is planning an overland trip in a caravan of cars. A number of "campus wreck" cars will be on the highway, sans covers, sans fenders, sans tires and starters if necessary.

Wheat fields of Kansas? Daily papers and porch swings at home? Sleeping late, a ride down Main street, a slow movie show in a hot house, hanging around the drug store of the home village, working in a store, just hanging around eternally in the heat? Not so! Not for modern students this summer! Study for geography! See Asheville! Climb Mt. Mitchell, the highest point in America east of the Rockies! Look down on the world from Old Craggy and have an experience of a life time. Come up, on the heights in the "Land of the Sky," and enjoy Christian student fellowship of the rarest kind. Meet fellow students from all sections. Get a new conception of the Christianity of the campus. Get a broader horizon for the rest of life. Find your highest self. Learn to know God more intimately up high in his own mountains.

Where They Will Meet
Ridgecrest is the South Baptist Assembly Grounds, on the Southern Railway and on the main highway of North Carolina. Pritchell Hall, a modern summer resort hotel, will house and feed you for

SENIORS DEFEATED JUNIORS IN EASY BASKETBALL GAME

First Quarter Period of Sparring,
Followed By Three Quarters of Scoring

The junior and senior basketball teams of the College played a lively game of basketball in the gymnasium Wednesday evening, April 24. The score at the end of the game was 26-14 in favor of the senior team. Both teams were encouraged throughout the game by yells from the freshman and junior and sophomore and senior classes, which were eagerly watching the game from the sidelines.

During the first quarter both teams seemed to be trying to acustom themselves to the situation and get into the game wholeheartedly. The score at the end of the quarter was 4-2 in favor of the seniors.

During the second quarter the score was pulled up 10-2 in favor of the senior team, Cooke having thrown three field goals. Good passing by the senior guards and center aided Cooke in scoring the points.

The junior team began the third quarter with the determination to roll up the score in their favor. Although Vick and Freeman scored eight points for their team, Cooke and Jeffreys did as much for their side, and the third quarter ended with the score 18-10 in the seniors' favor.

RENDERED GOOD PROGRAM

The Alathenian Society rendered a most interesting program in chapel Friday morning. Since the subject for the English essay contest is Eugene O'Neill, it was decided that this would be an interesting subject to discuss. Isla Poole gave an account of O'Neill's life and works. She delivered it in such a way that no one could lose interest. Inez Parker read "Ile," one of O'Neill's one-act plays. She portrayed the unusual characters in a vivid manner. The program was fully enjoyed by everyone present.

COMING RECITALS

At 8:15 o'clock on Friday evening, May 3, Kate Mackie will give her graduating recital in expression. She will read a three-act play, "Peg O' My Heart," by J. Hartley Manners.

On May 10, Bettie Walter Jenkins will give her graduating recital in piano.

Both of these young ladies are talented and will give splendid recitals.

The public is cordially invited.

LAST FACULTY TEA OF SESSION GIVEN LAST THURSDAY AFTERNOON

On Thursday afternoon, April 25, from 4 till 6 o'clock, Misses Whitney, Mason, Payne, and Banta, and Mrs. Jones were hostesses at the last faculty tea of the session.

The guests were met at the door by Mrs. Fleetwood and Mrs. Jennings White, of Conway, and Myra Glover, who ushered them into the parlor where Mrs. W. B. Edwards introduced them to the receiving line.

The hall and parlors were decorated with brass vases and bowls of yellow and lavender flowers and brass candlesticks holding lavender candles. In the center of the parlor was a table covered with a lace cloth, where Mrs. Maude Newsome and Mrs. A. W. H. Jones poured tea from brass service. In the center of this table was a brass candelabra holding five lavender candles. Around the candelabra were several brass dishes holding salted nuts and lavender mints.

Isla Poole, Catherine Turner, Grace Stillman, Madeline Langston, and Mary Whitfield served

COLLEGE GIRLS AT MEET IN AULANDER

Attend Final Session of Sunday School Works In Baptist Association

Twenty-five or thirty Chowan girls attended the Sunday school convention in Aulander on Sunday afternoon, April 21. The Sunday session was the climax of a week of meetings.

Mr. Perry Morgan presided over this meeting at which the Sunday schools of the Roanoke-Chowan section were represented. The pastors of the two associations were present and gave the reports from their churches, which showed that the total enrollment had increased two or three thousand during the preceding week.

The devotional service was led by Mr. Coy Muckle, of Wingate Baptist Church. The choir of Chowan College sang "It Pays To Serve Jesus," after which Mr. Morgan talked on the work that is being done in Sunday schools and the work that can be done in Sunday school conventions.

The Aulander Baptist Church was filled; there was barely standing room. The College girls even had to sit around the pulpit. This fact was a very gratifying one to all those interested in the success of the convention.

The Lucalian Literary Society had charge of the chapel exercises Friday morning. They rendered the following program: Song, "Hail Pioneer," by the school; vocal solo, "Smiling Through," by Frances Flythe; vocal solo by Martha Bishop; land a musical reading, "Saucy Sue," by Annie Ballard Herring.

THE CROW'S NEST

The days when happy Seniors visited the old oak are gone, but we hope they are not gone forever. Surely some good fairy will rebuild the Crow's Nest.

Freshmen Win Loving Cup In Field Day Held At College Last Friday

Field Day, Friday, April 26, began with the freshman-senior basketball game, which was one of the most unique in College history. The score at the end of the game was 89-2 in favor of the freshmen.

The line-up was as follows:
FRESHMEN SENIORS

R. F.
M. Turner L. Long

During the first quarter, the freshmen walked all over the seniors and scored 25 points while the seniors scored none. Turner made 22 of these points and Walls 3. Benton went in for Walls at the end of the quarter. She scored 10 points and Turner 14, making the score at the end of the half 49-0.

The second half followed the same course as the first. The seniors changed their line-up at the end of each quarter, hoping to change their score, but to no avail. In the last half, Turner made 26 points and Benton 14 for the freshmen. Just before the end of the game, Cooke shot one goal for the seniors, leaving the score 89-2 in favor of the freshmen.

The next events were the fifty-yard and hundred-yard dashes. In both the seniors, by Alice Cooke, won first place; the freshmen, by Mae Turner, won second; the sophomores, by Grace Stillman, won third.

JUNIORS PRESENT TWO ONE-ACT PLAYS

On Friday evening, April 26, the junior class presented two one-act plays. The first was "Pink and Patches," by Margaret Bland. The cast of characters was:

Ma.....Colon Brewer
Texie.....Pauline Simons
Rexie.....Nellie Sutton
Mrs. Allen.....Thelma Freeman

This pathetic little playlet of mountain folk was well interpreted.

The second number on the program was a violin recital by Prof. M. J. Benyunes. He gave beautiful and well-received renderings of the following:

Walter in A Major.....Kreisler
La Paloma.....Yradier
At Dawning.....Cadman
Sextette from Lucia.....Dazzettie
Un Peu D'Amour.....Silesi
Battle of the Nation.....Lampe
Light Calvary Overture.....Suppe
"It's a Precious Little Thing Called Love"

"Carolina Moon," waltz.
"Sweetheart of All My Dreams."

Mr. Benyunes is a genuine musician, and so is Miss Rosalie Liverman, who played his accompaniments.

"Suppressed Desires" was then presented. It is a humorous satire on the psychologists and their belief that dreams are suppressed desires. The characters were:

Henrietta Brewster, Mary Lou Martin; Stephen, her husband, Juanita Vick; Mabel, her sister, Frances Flythe.

SENIORS GUESTS AT RECEPTION APRIL 17

Mrs. W. B. Edwards, advisor of the class of '29, entertained the members of the class at an elaborate six o'clock dinner on Wednesday evening, April 17, in the College dining hall.

The tables, arranged through the center of the hall, were decorated with sprays of ivy and bowls of pink roses. Tall silver candlesticks, placed at intervals along the tables, held white candles which threw a soft light over the room, lighting the faces of the happy guests.

President Edwards gave a toast to the Seniors to which Mary Lou Jones, president of the class, responded. Mr. Edwards then presented to each senior a miniature diploma—a "diploma of good wishes."

The menu, which was served in five courses, consisted of fruit cocktail, a chicken course, asparagus salad, ice cream, and demitasse.

Those present besides the members of the senior class were: Little Miss Jane Brown, mascot of the class; Mrs. W. N. Brown, Mrs. P. D. Sewell, Misses Eunice McDowell, Minnie Caldwell, Sarah Craddock, and Willie Halsell.

Music And Drama Week Observance Developes Four Features, Visit Of Glee Club Proving The High Light

High School Week End Participated In By Five Schools

Weldon, Aulander, Winton,
Rich Square and Seaboard Schools

MUCH INTEREST IN FEATURE CONTESTS

Athletic and Reading Contests Create Much
Rivalry

High School Week-End, which was observed at the College April 20-21, was attended by representatives from Weldon, Aulander, Winton, Rich Square, and Seaboard high schools.

Interest was shown in the two features of High School Week-End, an athletic contest and a reading contest. The girl winning the most points in the athletic contest was awarded a scholarship for next year in the literary department of Chowan College, and the winner in the reading contest was awarded a scholarship in the dramatic department of the College.

The athletic contest which was held on the athletic field Saturday afternoon was participated in by representatives from the Weldon and Aulander schools. Friendly rivalry and sportsmanship were evident in the dashes, the broad and high jumps, the shotput, baseball, basketball, and javelin throws, and the relay race.

The contest ended with sixty and one-half points to Weldon's credit and twenty-eight and one-half to Aulander's. Georgia Mae Partin, from Weldon, winner of thirty-eight points, was awarded the literary scholarship for next year.

Winton, Aulander, and Weldon were represented in the reading contest, which was held in the College auditorium Saturday evening, by Misses Mary Lee Clark, who read "Ole Mistis," Daisy Mae Parker, who read "At the Soda Fountain," and Dot Campbell, who read "The Highwayman."

Mary Lee Clark, Winton, won first place, and Daisy Mae Parker, Aulander, won second place. The three girls displayed dramatic ability and held the attention of their audience as they read.

CHOWAN STUDENTS GO TO WILLIAMSTON

They Attend Regional Convention of B. Y. P. U. There On April 19 and 20

The Eastern Regional B. Y. P. U. convention, which was held at Williamston, April 19-20, was attended both days by delegates from Chowan.

The convention was well attended, and the B. Y. P. U. spirit in this section of the State was strengthened. Plans for the State convention at Meredith College, Raleigh, were discussed.

Ruby Daniel, former director of the College B. Y. P. U., discussed "The Importance of Special Features in the General Assembly" on Friday afternoon. Special music was rendered on Saturday by the Chowan trio composed of Maidee Lee Wade, Ruby Daniel, and Frances Flythe.

Ann Downey made a talk Saturday afternoon on "The B. Y. P. U. Magazine;" Bettie Walter Jenkins on "The Biblical Recorder," and Wilma Ellington on "How to Plan B. Y. P. U. Socials."

Mr. James A. Ivey, the B. Y. P. U. secretary, sounded the keynote of the convention Saturday morning in his talk, "The Finest of Arts." "The finest of the fine arts," he said, "is soul-winning."

Hilda Jones is back with us after being at the Park View Hospital in Rocky Mount for two weeks. Hilda was operated on for appendicitis and is getting on nicely.

Wake Forest Boys' Visit Brings Usual Flurry of Excitement

CELEBRATION WAS FOR 2-DAY PERIOD

Dramatic Club Presents Play
Under Direction of Miss Poe

Music and Drama Week at Chowan, April 17-19, was a success. There were four features, the most important in the minds of Chowan girls being the fourth feature.

On Wednesday evening, April 17, there was a well rendered concert by the piano and voice departments of Chowan. As a whole, the program showed fine preparation and talent. The program was as follows:

"The Old Road," J. P. Scott; "Mah Lindy Lou," Strickland. Glee Club.
"Venitienne," Godard. Emma Gay Stephenson.
"A Japanese Sunset," Deppen; "She Was But Seven," Hawley. Frances Flythe, Maidee Wade, Ruby Daniel.
"O, for the Wings of a Dove," Mendelssohn. Frances Flythe.
"Valse Brillante," Chopin. Rosalie Liverman.
"Shadow March," Protheroe; "Requiem," Homer. Frances Flythe, Maidee Wade, Ruby Daniel.
"Valse," Chopin; "Soirees De Vienne," Schubert-Liszt. Ruth Davenport.

"Swing Along," Cook. Glee Club. The two particularly excellent numbers on the program were Frances Flythe's vocal solo, "O, for the Wings of a Dove," and Rosalie Liverman's piano solo, "Valse Brillante." Both were presented with exceptionally fine finish.

The fact that the program was not well attended proves that people often neglect the opportunities to hear something really good.

On Thursday evening, April 18, the Chowan Dramatic Club, directed by Miss Mildred Poe, presented "The Importance of Being Earnest," a three-act comedy, by Oscar Wilde. The play was good, but the fact that the characters did not know quite what they were supposed to do or say amused the audience more than the play did. The audience was extremely good-natured and supported the players admirably. Fred Ricks, as Algernon Moncrieff, starred.

The characters were as follows: John Worthing, Cary Reece; Algernon Moncrieff, his friend, Fred Ricks; Rev. Canon Chasuble, Edward Lee; Merriman, butler, Mr. Worthing, George Campbell; Lane, Mr. Moncrieff's man-servant, Hugh White; Lady Bracknell, Inez Parker; Gwendoline Fairfax, her daughter, Corinna Malpass; Cecily Cardew, John Worthing's ward, Margaret Jeffreys; Miss Prism, Maybelle Honeycutt.

The excitement on Friday started late in the afternoon when a Dodge roadster, followed by a big blue and white bus, drove up to the front steps. Out poured thirty or thirty-five men and out of the doors of Chowan poured a hundred and fifty girls to welcome "the boys."

Those who were so fortunate nabbed men and made off with them to the dining room where they found a meal of more than unusual quality and quantity. The boys and girls soon did honor to their evening repast and retired to a more favorable location for tete-a-tetes until time for the concert to begin.

By way of something different, the girls were down ahead of time, and very much dressed up. Miss McDowell didn't have her usual trouble of making them sit near the front, either. On the contrary, she had to settle several rather heated discussions as to who would sit on the front row.

The combined Glee Club and Orchestra rendered the following program under the direction of Professor K. T. Raynor, affectionately dubbed by the boys, "Katy:"

Part I
1. a. "Alma Mater," words by G. W. Paschal, '92; b. "Thou Art Repose," Schubert; c. "Soldiers' Chorus" (Faust), Gounod. Glee Club.

2. a. "March of the Three Musketeers," Friml; b. "Japanese Moonlight," Friml. Orchestra. (Continued on Page 4)
